THE CALLEN COAT OF ARMS

THE CALLEN COAT OF ARMS HEREBY ILLUSTRATED IS OFFICIALLY DOCUMENTED IN BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY, THE ORIGINAL DESCRIPTION OF THE ARMS (SHIELD) IS AS FOLLOWS:

"OR, ON A BEND GU, THREE MARTLETS AR."

WHEN TRANSLATED THE BLAZON ALSO DESCRIBES THE ORIGINAL COLORS OF THE CALLEN ARMS AS:

"GOLD, A RED DIAGONAL BAND, THREE SILVER BIRDS WITHOUT FEET."

ABOVE THE SHIELD AND HELMET IS THE CREST WHICH IS DESCRIBED AS:

"HALF A RED GRIFFIN ATTACKING."

FORWARD

THE CALLEN CHRONICLES has been written with the purpose of recording the descendants of the Callen family who first appeared in Pennsylvania in the early 1700's.

Research indicates that two Scotch-Irish men named John and Edward Callen came to the English Colonies around 1733-1737 and settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. We believe that the families featured in this book are direct descendants of, or at least related to, these two men.

This family history has been researched for many years, by many descendants. We've tried to make this history as accurate, complete and interesting as possible. However we, the compilers, disclaim all responsibility for possible mis-information or inaccuracies contained in this book.

Each descendant is listed showing their direct line of descent following their name. Each descendant has been given a Roman Numeral in order of birth. Those descendants that have additional information are also given an Arabic Numeral. This enables the reader to find any given name by consulting the Index and referring to the Arabic Number for that name.

The following abbreviations are used:

b.	born	m.	married
ca.	about	s/d	step daughter
Co.	county	s/s	Step son
d.	died	Twp	township

We are deeply grateful, and extend our thanks to all family members who have supplied us with information. (See bibliography for listings.)

Additional information, inquiries and corrections welcome. Please write to members of the Callen family-research network, names listed on page 5.

THE CALLEN FAMILIES IN COLONIAL AMERICA

The CALLEN family name first appears in America around 1733 in eastern Pennsylvania. It appears evident that these early pioneers were of Scotch-Irish heritage, and immigrated to the Colonies in order to gain greater religious and economic freedom. There were many CALLEN men in Pennsylvania and the Colonies through the 1700's, and although there is agreement that several were probably brothers, we have no proof as to their exact relationships.

"The Scotch-Irish who settled in America came from Ireland, but they were chiefly of Scottish descent. In 1611 King James I of England, ...began to colonize Ulster in northern Ireland with Protestant people from Scotland and northern England. Most of these colonist sent to Ulster were Lowland Scotch Presbyterians, adherents of the teachings of John Knox. After a considerable part of the Catholic Irish inhabitants of that fertile part of Ireland had been expelled by Oliver Cromwell, many other Scotch Presbyterians settled there. The so-called Scotch-Irish were neither true Scots nor true Irish in the ethnological sense. They had in their veins the blood of the earliest Britons and later Scandinavian invaders. But they were called Scotch-Irish (S-I) because they had lived in Scotland and moved to Ireland.

"The Scotch Presbyterians -- afterward known as Orangemen -- prospered and multiplied rapidly in Northern Ireland...Naturally, there was some intermixture between the Scotch and English on the one hand and the native Irish on the other. Their chief industry was the manufacture of woolen and linen cloth. In process of time, however, the Scotch Presbyterians of Ireland clashed with the economic and religious policies of the British Government. Parliament undertook to make them conform to the Anglican worship and in 1698 and later passed laws that greatly injured the woolen and linen industry of Ulster. Desirous of the greater religious liberty and economic opportunity, large numbers of people from Ulster began to migrate to America. Between 1730 and 1770 several hundred thousand Scotch-Irish came to the English Colonies...

"They were staunch Calvinists, and everywhere they went they took their Presbyterian faith with them...Many of them went to Pennsylvania...Some of the settlers of other nationalities regarded the Scotch-Irish as zealots in religion, in the exercise of personal independence and in the acquisition of land. It was said of them that they kept the Sabbath and everything else they could lay their hands on...It is estimated that one-third of the population of Pennsylvania was Scotch-Irish in 1770..." (A Book About American History by George Stimpson) (35A)The Port of Entry used by the Scotch-Irish ca 1730 was Newcastle, Delaware. We are told that records were not always kept of the Scotch-Irish immigrants because they were merely moving from one English province to another, therefore we have not found any record of the original Callen migration.

The S-I then went by a new road constructed in 1733 through "The Gap" near Octorara Creek into Lancaster Co., Pa. The heaviest settlement in the Cumberland Valley in Pennsylvania was by the Scotch-Irish from 1731 to 1735.

1731 -- The first thing the S-I did upon arrival in an area was to establish a Presbytery, and accordingly the Mercersburg Presbyterian Church was established in 1731 in the Cumberland Valley then part of Lancaster Co, Pa.

1733 -- On April 9, 1733 - According to "History of Cumberland Valley" by Geo D Blunston (magistrate named by the Penns as responsible for issuing the land patents for that area), JOHN CALLEN was issued a patent for 200 acres in Lancaster Co. This land was located west of the Susquehanna River and south of the Conodoguinet Creek. The property is in the vicinity of Hogestown, Carlisle and Mercersburg, just West of Harris' Ferry (Harrisburg), which was then "the gateway to the West".

(35A)For many years, Carlisle was the terminus of the old wagon road along the "Raystown Path" or "National Highway". It was not extended until 1758 or so. Until that time, travel was by foot or horseback and all freight moved by pack horses. It is said that travel at that time was "little less than a continuance of miracles" and most preferred to cross the Alleghenies by foot, rather than to risk life and limb in a wagon." (Wayland Dunaway's "The S-I in Colonial Pennsylvania")

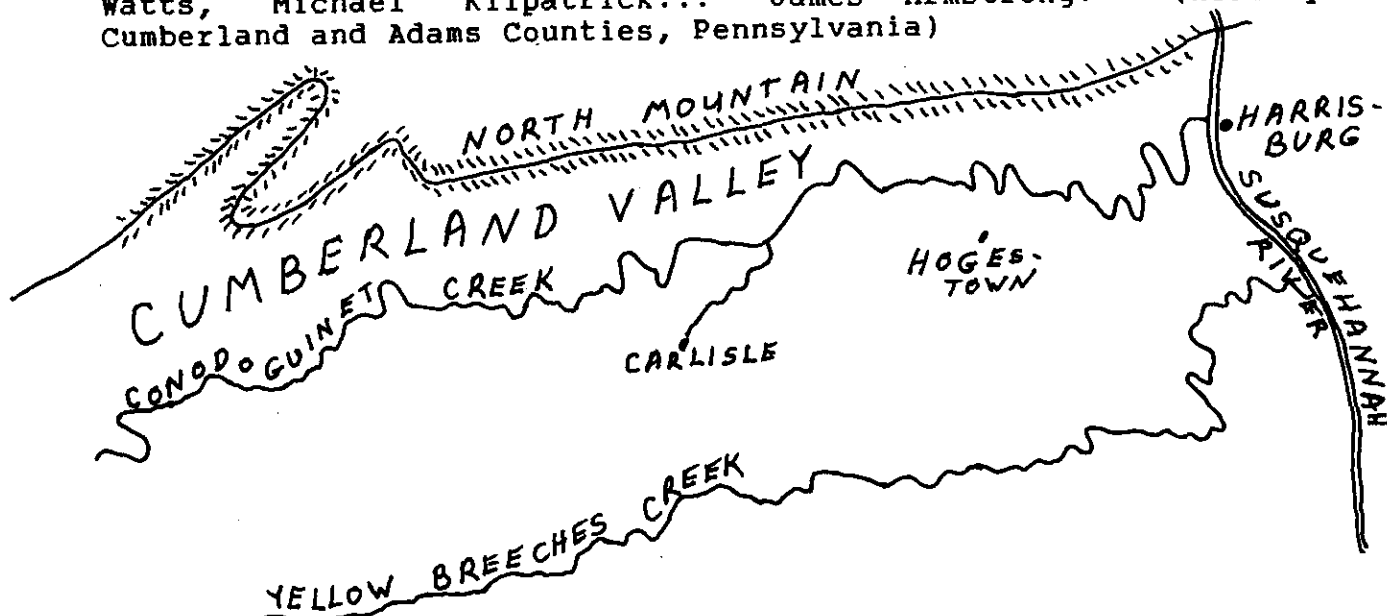

1734 -- About a thousand people settled in the Kittochtinny Valley, nine-tenths of whom were Scotch-Irish. These people rarely purchased land, preferring tenancy "at will" and fully believing in "squatter's rights". Since they were always on the edge of civilization, they deemed it their right to take over the lands of the Indians, which were nominally controlled at the time by the Penns. A letter to the Provincial Government in 1734, by Logan, the secretary of the province, bemoans the fact that the Scotch-Irish and the Scotch had taken up western lands though they rarely approached him to purchase the land. Quoth he "I look upon them as bold and indigent strangers, giving as their excuse, when challenged for titles, that we had solicited for colonists, and they had come accordingly!" However, they were generally not molested, for they were exempted from the payment of rents in consequence of their being frontier-men, and forming a cordon of defence to the colony. ("History of Juniata Valley" by U.J. Jones)

1736 -- The Penn's proprietors purchased the Cumberland Valley from the Indians in order to avoid problems between the Indians and the settlers.

1737 -- According to the Pennsylvania Archives EDWARD and JOHN CALLEN each took up 200 acres of land in then Lancaster County. (43A)JOHN CALLEN appears in the Pa records in 1737, making application for a tract of land, about 350 acres, lying west of the Susquehanna River and south of the Conodoguinet Creek, in the vicinity of Hogestown. In this transaction John is referred to as

"yeoman", a term used to identify a man who farmed his own land. This would indicate that John already had settled and improved the land, possibly the same land to which he had applied for the title. The land was granted to him.

"John Hoge settled very early on the site of Hogestown...Two brothers, named Orr, coming from Ireland before 1738, settled near him...In the same neighborhood were...JOHN CALLEN, John Watts, Michael Kilpatrick... James Armstrong." (History of Cumberland and Adams Counties, Pennsylvania)

1742 -- On March 3, 1742, JOHN CALLEN received a patent for 362 acres of land in Pennsborough Township, Lancaster Co, Pa from the Penns. This is recorded in patent Book A, Vol 11, on page 166.

1742 -- On March 4, 1742 JOHN CALLEN mortgaged this land to Richard Peters (a representative of the Penn's) for 75 lbs to be paid back over five years as follows:

- 19 lbs, 10 shillings due on the 4th day of March 1743
- 18 lbs, ___ shillings due on the 4th day of March 1744
- 17 lbs, 14 shillings due on the 4th day of March 1745
- 15 lbs, 18 shillings due on the 4th day of March 1747

SEE APPENDIX A FOR TRANSCRIPT OF DEED

(43A)"The mortgage was marked as being satisfied on May 8, 1744; however on the same date JOHN CALLEN executed another mortgage covering the same property for the sum of Two hundred fifteen pounds which appears to be a one year lien. No notes found as to whether or when this lien was satisfied, but on Feb 28, 1754 Richard Peters sold the land, or a portion of it, to a John McClure."

SEE APPENDIX A FOR TRANSCRIPT OF DEED

1744-1764 --(43A)Between 1744, when JOHN CALLEN is last recorded and heard of, to when the Callen name again appears, Western Pennsylvania was devastated by hostilities precipitated by the French and Indian Wars, the French having begun "as early as 1730 to alienate the Indians and the English."

The hostilities began around 1754 and the Indian Wars ravaged the frontier until 1764. With the defeat of General Braddock in 1755 the western Pennsylvania frontier was left exposed. Most of the settlers fled, either to the protection of the forts or out of the area entirely. All chronicles of that period refer to the widespread devastation of homesteads and heavy loss of life among the settlers. There was a brief respite between 1760 and 1763, until the beginning of Pontiac's War which lasted into 1764.

From the diary of a member of a military escort traveling from Ft. Pitt to Bedford, stopping in the vicinity of Fort Ligonier: "There were no settlers in the valley. They had all fled the Spring before or had given up and gone even farther eastward. If anything, the frontier was more dangerous now than it had been for some years. The valley...lay desolate and desolated."

During this period the Quaker government had ignored the "frantic" pleas of the Governor and military leaders for supplies. The militant Scotch-Irish had a "hatred and contempt" for the pacifist Quakers that was stirring into revolt. In a desperate move, "a wagon load of scalped and mangled corpses was drawn past the State House" and a group of "...Presbyterian Scotch Irish, fortified by whiskey and prayers and armed with long greased rifles, descended with blackened faces and Indian costumes upon Philadelphia," to impress upon the Friends that there were indeed people in the world who deserved the title "enemy." "The Quaker utopia by the Delaware (River) finally opened its eyes, a bit, to the terrible glow of burning cabins on the frontier." (From Bedford Village written by Harvey Allen, based on factual information.)

1750 - CUMBERLAND COUNTY was formed from parts of Lancaster County.

1762 -- WILLIAM CALLEN married ELIZABETH TAYLOR of Virginia (see chapter on William Callen Sr)

1762 -- SIMON CALLINS is listed as a resident of Carlisle, Pa (History of Cumberland and Adams Counties, Pennsylvania)

1766 -- There is a record of the marriage between EDWARD CALLEN to JANE MCILROY in the Province of Pennsylvania on December 18, 1766. It is not know if he is the Edward Callen who purchased land in 1737, or a son of Edward or John, or perhaps a new immigrant himself.

1768 -- April 4 JOSEPH CALLEN is a witness to a land transaction between Alexander Mathews, Sr and George Mathews - the land being situated in Hopewell Township, Cumberland Co, Pa (Cumberland Co Archives)

acres of land, with 30 acres cleared. (Cumberland Co tax records - interesting note that Jonathan & David Hoges and John & William Orr are also on this tax list - see 1737 paragraph 2.)

1769-1770 -- (43A) Settlements were being renewed. In Bedford County (which became Westmoreland County in 1773) land could also be acquired from Virginia. "Tomahawk rights" were recognized, so that squatters were given title, defacto. Both colonies allowed a pre-emption right by improvement. A majority of settlers in the forks of the Yough River retained their lands under Virginia jurisdiction. After 1769, with the opening of the land office, rights were granted by the Penns.

1769 -- WILLIAM CAMELIN is shown on a tax list in West Pennsborough Twp, Cumberland Co. He was taxed for 1 horse, 1 cow, 100 acres of land, with 35 acres cleared. We feel that the name was misspelled and that this is the same William Callans as shown on the 1768 tax list in East Pennsborough Twp.

1769 -- On the same West Pennsborough tax list we find PATRICK CALLEN. He was taxed for 1 horse, 1 cow, 2 sheep, with 50 acres warrented having 10 acres cleared.

1769 -- WILLIAM CALIN was a witness to a land transaction on Christian's Creek in Augusta Co, Va. On Nov 8th WILLIAM CALLEN was surveyed 280 acres of land in Rockingham Co, Va.

1770 -- PATRICK CALLEN is shown on a tax list in West Pennsborough Twp, Cumberland Co. Again he is taxed for 1 horse, 1 cow, 2 sheep and with 30 acres of land located, and 3 acres cleared.

1771 - BEDFORD COUNTY was formed from parts of Cumberland County

1772 - NORTHUMBERLAND CO was formed - taken from Lancaster and Bedford Counties.

1772 -- November 17 - WILLIAM CALLEN and wife ELIZABETH received a Patent for land in Augusta Co, Va. (Augusta Co. land records)

1773 -- JAMES CALLAN is shown on a tax list in Hempfield Township, Bedford County. The amount of the tax assessed was 2.6 (Pa Archives Series 3, Volumn 22, page 26)

1773 -- PATRICK CALLAN is shown on the same tax list as James, in Hempfield Township, Bedford Co. The amount of the tax was 2.0.

1773 - WESTMORELAND COUNTY was formed - land being taken from Bedford Co. and extending westward to the state line.

1773 -- HUGH CALLEN was born in Westmoreland County, the son of Patrick and Sarah (Hennen) Callen. As an adult, Hugh founded the Borough of Callensburg, in Clarion Co, Pa.

1774 -- ALEXANDER CALLEN immigrated to Wilmington N.C. ("Passenger & Immigration Lists Index edited by P William Filby with Mary K Meyer)

CALLAN REVOLUTIONARY WAR SOLDIERS

1776-1778 -- WILLIAM CALLEN is listed as a Lieutenant in the 2nd Battalion 3rd Company under the command of Col. John Perry in Westmoreland Co during the Revolutionary War. (see chapter on William Callen for more details)

1778 -- PATRICK CALLEN is listed as a Private in Capt John McClelands Company to escort provisions to Fort Hand, Westmoreland Co. (see chapter on Patrick Callen for more details)

(55A) JAMES CALLAN and EDWARD CALLAN served together as Privates in Capt James Lucas' Co of the 4th Virginia Regiment of Foot, commanded by Col. Robert Lawson also known as Capt Isaac Beall's Co. They both enlisted for 3 years service on September 19, 1777. On March 4, 1778 they were stationed at Camp Valley Forge. The last record for Edward on June 6, 1778 shows he was "Claimed by another company." James records show that on July 12, 1778 he was stationed at Camp Paramus and was sick "at this point has been transferred to Capt George Wall's Co of the 4th 8th and 12th Va Regt of Foot Commanded by Col James Wood" later commanded by Col. John Nevill. In June he was listed in Capt John Steed's Co of the 4th Va Regt of Foot commanded by Col John Nevill.

1778 -- JAMES CALLIN married. The name of his wife is unknown, but this marriage is recorded in the DAR records and also in "The Callin Family History" by G.W. Callin ca 1911. (There is no chapter on the James Callin family in this book since we have not located any decendants to approve copying this information.)

1780 -- WILLIAM CALLAN held land adjacent to the McIllduff family (later shortened to Duff) in Franklin Twp, Westmoreland Co. (History of Westmoreland Co, Pennsylvania edited by George Dallas Albert 1882)

1781 May 7 -- THOMAS CALLEN son of deceased ANDREAS CALLEN married Catharina daughter of Gorg Conrad, in Lancaster Co, Pa. (Pa Archives Series 6, Volumn 6, pg 213)

1783 -- WILLIAM CALLAN is shown on a tax list in Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland Co for 200 acres, 3 horses, 3 cattle, 6 sheep (Pa Archives Series 3, Volumn 22, pg 403).

1783 -- PATRICK CALLAN is listed on a tax list in Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland Co, North District Tax 3.8 (Pa Archives Series 3, Volumn 22, pg 403).

1783 -- PATRICK CALLAN is listed on a transcript of property in Mt Pleasant Twp, Westmoreland Co for 1 horse, 1 cattle (Pa Archives Series 3, Volumn 22, pg 431)

1783 -- York Co, Pa court records show CHARLES and ALICE (COWGILL)

CALLEN receiving her inheritance from her father's will (see chapter on Charles Callen).

1783 -- Around 1783 SAMUEL CALLEN SR was born, parents unknown.

1784 -- THOMAS M CALLEN is listed in Capt Robert McCallens 1st Battalion (Pa Archives Series 6, Volumn 3, pg 457)

1785 -- WILLIAM CALLEN is named administrator for the estate of Joseph Irwin (Westmoreland Co courthouse records)

1785 Aug -- WILLIAM CALLAIN died from a fall off his horse, leaving only a verbal will - "having no relations" and left "what littel property he had to Wm Shepard and Charles McRight his apprentice Boys for said he they best deserve it also said that his Boys earnt it". (Westmoreland Co wills)

1785 -- GEORGE CALLEN taxed in Cumberland Co, Greenwood Twp for 200 acres of land. (Pa Archives Series 3, Volumn 20, pg 718)

1786 -- WILLIAM CALLEN is taxed in Franklin Twp, Westmoreland Co. (See 1780 - William held land adjacent to the McIllduff family in Franklin Twp)

1786-- PATRICK CALLEN is listed under "return of state tax" in Hempfield Twp, Westmorelad Co amount of Tax 3.9 (Pa Archives Series 3, Volumn 22, pg 506)

1786 -- PATRICK CALLEN is taxed in Mt Pleasant Twp, Westmoreland Co (Pa Archives Series 3, Volumn 22, pg 535)

1787 -- WILLIAM CALLEN SR purchased land in Mecklenburg Co, North Carolina.

1790 -- PATRICK CALLEN is the only Callen listed in Pa in the 1st U.S. census. He was living in Salem Twp, Westmoreland Co.

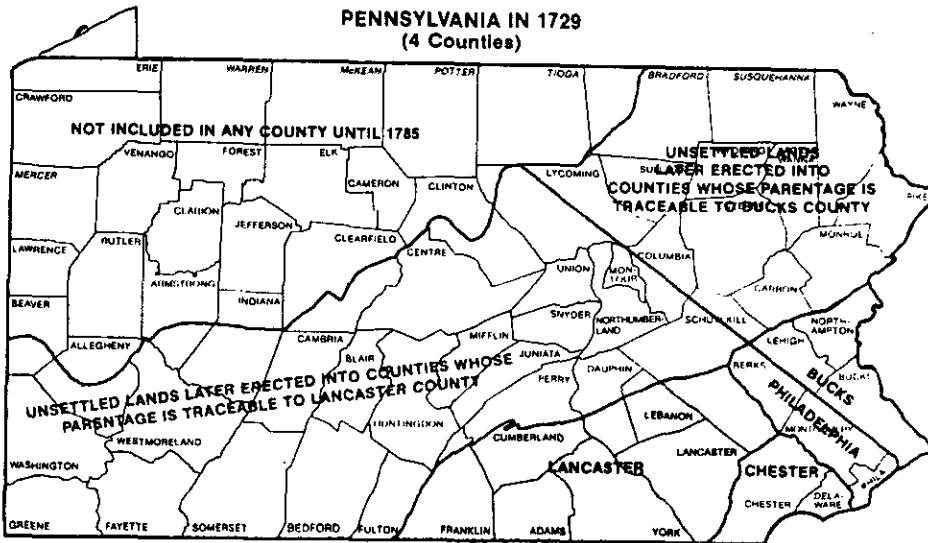

1790 -- WILLIAM CALLAND is shown on the census records in Mecklenburg Co, North Carolina.

1792-1794 -- HUGH and JOHN CALLEN listed in the Westmoreland Co militia (Pa Archives Series ___ Volumn ___ pg ___)

Personal property tax lists show "There were CALLENS early on in Mason County, Kentucky" as follows:

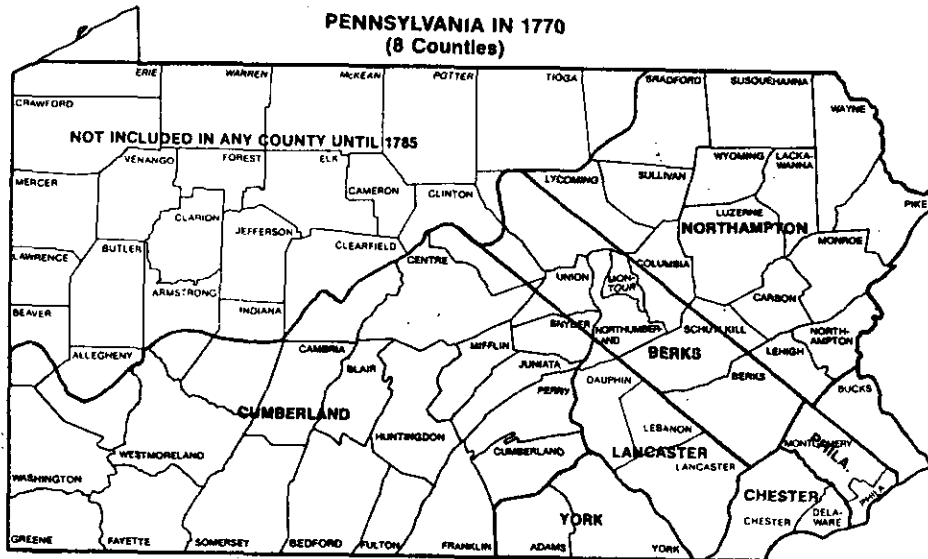

LUTHER -- 1790
THOMAS -- 1793, 1795, 1797
WILLIAM -- 1793, 1794, 1795, 1796, 1799

PATRICK CALLEN

1,1-PATRICK CALLEN was born around 1745-1750. We're uncertain if he was born in the Colonies or if (1)"at an early day [he] crossed the Atlantic". He was of Scotch/Irish descent, perhaps a son of John Callen who purchased land in Lancaster Co ca 1733.

(2)The first we actually hear of Patrick is in 1769 when he was taxed in Pennsborough Twp, Cumberland Co, Pa, for 1 horse, 1 cow, and 50 acres of land. (3)In 1773 Patrick was taxed for land in Hempfield Twp, Bedford Co, which later became Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland Co. (4)From Westmoreland Co land records, we learn that Patrick married SARAH HENNEN (HEANEY), sister of David Hennen and James Hennen. Sarah was also of Scotch/Irish descent.

(5)On July 21, 1778 Private Patrick Callen is listed in a Roll of detachment of Capt. John McClelland's company to escort provisions to Fort Hand. (7)"Fort Hand was erected in the spring of 1778...it was located in Westmoreland Co about 14 miles north of Hannastown, at a point described in an old manuscript as being 'about a mile south of the ford of the Kiskiminetas; and the ford was about 6 miles above the mouth of the stream.'" (8)Fort Hand was intended to protect the north border of Westmoreland Co from the raids of the Indians who lived on the upper waters of the Allegheny River." Just 3 weeks earlier, on July 7th, another "party of 9 men, under the leadership of Capt. Miller, were bringing grain to Fort Hand...and on their return were surprised by a party of Indians who lay in wait for them and killed the captain and seven others."

It may be about this same time that the story has been told about Patrick's and Sarah's identical twin daughters, their names uncertain. (35D)"During the Revolutionary War when there was much Indian activity in Westmoreland Co., the two little girls were kidnapped in an Indian raid when Patrick was away from home. The little girls were about five or six at the time, and both were taken. About 10 or 12 years later (after the Revolutionary War was over) a fur trader went into a remote Indian village, in far western Pennsylvania or Ohio, to trade with the Indians. While he was in the village he saw two young white women, about 18 years old, living with the tribe. One was the wife of a young indian brave and had a tiny baby; the other was unattached, but under the "protection" of a family in the tribe. During his visit he had no opportunity to talk with either of the women; however, after he had traded with the indians and left the village, he found one of the young women under the supplies in his canoe. She told him that she wanted to return to her white family; she said that she had talked with her sister before leaving and that her sister had wanted to remain behind with her indian family." She was returned to Patrick and Sarah Callen - apparently just a short time before they moved to Armstrong Co. The story continued, "the returned daughter had not been injured or mistreated, the family that had taken her in in the tribe had treated her as a daughter. Though she never regretted returning to her natural family, she was often restless. She was a private person, enjoying her time alone and in the woods, and she was described by her nephew, Watson, as 'special and different'. She had a way with wild animals that no one, not even her family understood. She was slender, tall, and very blonde but she spent every day in the sun and the wind and she was as brown as an indian. Watson said that his grandparents just let her be herself, and did not attempt to change her, but cherished her for who she was."

(29)In 1790 the first U.S. census was taken and we find Patrick listed in Salem Township, Westmoreland Co - showing 1 male head-of-household, 2 males under 16, 3 free white females including the head-of-household.

(9)In November of 1793, while living in Westmoreland Co, Patrick made initial improvements to a tract of land located in the loop of Buffalo Creek and on the right bank (see map pg 18), which he later patented as "Downpatrick" in 1804. The property was surveyed to him in 1802 and he was accordingly assessed for it, along with 1 horse and 1 cow. (35A)In 1798 according to the notes of the assessor, his 300 acres was valued at $316.00 and his buildings, consisting of a 16x18 loghouse and a 10x12 stable were valued at a mere $16.00. The assessor added this note: "He must work better or he might a had a better house"!!

(9)In April 1802 Patrick moved his family to his property on Buffalo Creek, Armstrong Co. (35A)He transferred 150 acres of land on Beaver Run in Westmoreland Co. to Samuel Callen; (9)and in 1811 he conveyed 97 acres of "Downpartick" to Robert Morris and another 100 acres to John Callen. (11)In 1818 he bought back the 100 acres from John Callen at the same purchase price as he sold it.

(35A)Patrick served in the War of 1812, mustering in on March 18 with the rank of 2nd Lieutenant in the 2nd Light Dragoons. He transferred to the 26th Infantry on May 11, 1814, and was made 1st Lieutenant on May 20th. He was honorably discharged on June 15, 1815, estimating his age at that time to be around 65 years old.

(9)On November 3, 1814 Patrick is listed among the signers of a letter calling Rev John Redick to be the pastor of the Slate Lick Presbyberian Church in Armstrong Co.

In March 1825 Patrick Callen, (11)then of Toby Twp, Armstrong Co died, naming his son, Hugh, and son-in-law James Rayburn as executors of his will which is registered in Armstrong Co. The place of his burial is unknown. No more is heard of his wife Sarah; her death date was probably in early 1827(11-9), her burial place also unknown.

To The Honourable John Penn Governor in and over the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of Newcastle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware.

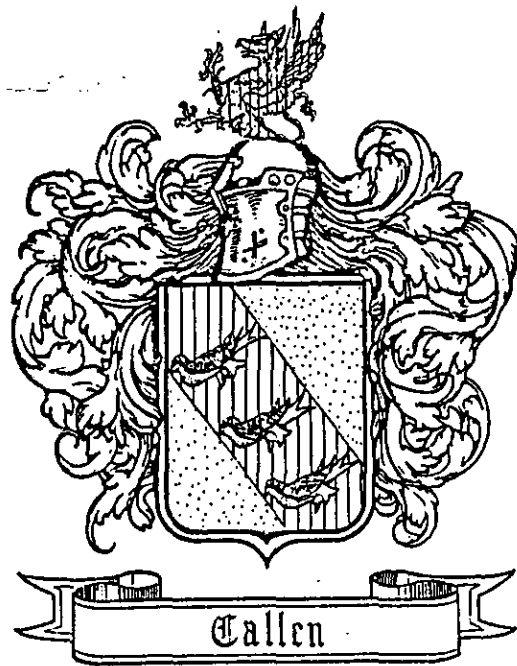

The Petition of Sundry of the Inhabitants of Westmoreland County—

Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioners in Consequence of the first Alarm in these Parts, did Assemble at Hanna's Town; where at their own Expence they Erected a Small Fortification as a Shelter for their Wives and Families during the Troublesome Times, and under direction of the Gentlemen of the Association Voluntarily took up Arms for the General defence of this part of the Country, 'till such Times as your Honor and the Honble Assembly were pleased to approve of our Proceedings. Your Petitioners thought themselves extremely happy and Secure, when your Honor and the Honble Assembly so considerably order'd a number of troops to be embodied for our General protection and Safety; but your Petitioners are now rendered very uneasy, by the Removal of these Troops, their Arms and Ammunition, on which your Petitioners greatest dependance lay, and which your Petitioners farther understand are ordered to the Kittaning, a place at least distant from any of the Settlements, Twenty five or Thirty Miles. Your Petitioners by being left thus exposed without Arms or Ammunition, humbly conceive themselves to be in great Danger from the Enemy, and are sorry to observe to your Honor and the Honble Assembly, that 'tis the General, as well as the humble opinion of your Petitioners, that removing the Troops to so distant and uninhabited a part of the Province as the Kittaning, cannot answer the good Purpose for which they were intended, but appears calculated only by the advice of some who prefer their own Private Interest to the Public Welfare. Your Petitioners are farther most humbly of opinion, that some ill disposed person or persons have misrepresented our real Situation to your Honor and the Honble Assembly, otherwise we could not conceive that your Honor and the Honble Assembly would leave us exposed and defenceless in the manner we now are. Your Petitioners therefore most humbly request, that your Honor would be pleased to consider their Alarming Situation, and order such assistance as their Defenceless condition requires. And your Petitioners as in duty bound shall pray &c. &c.

LINE OF PATRICK CALLEN - 2ND GENERATION

1,2-JAMES CALLEN/ Patrick Callen

JAMES CALLEN is believed to be the son of Patrick and Sarah (Hennen) Callen. Only two sources of information have been found on him to date:

(11)He is listed as a legatee in Patrick Callen's will (29)The 1810 census record for Toby Twp, Armstrong Co, Pa shows James and his family living in the same home as Hugh Callen Sr, founder of Callensburg. The ages of his family are:

males 0-10 yrs old= 4; 10-16= 0; 26-45= 1; over 45=1
females 0-10 yrs old= 2; 10-16= 1; 26-45= 1

1,3-HUGH CALLEN/ Patrick Callen

HUGH CALLEN, Senior was born June 5, 1773 in Westmoreland County Pennsylvania (4)probably Hempfield Township. (One source indicates that he was born in Armstrong Co - but Armstrong Co was not formed until 1800.) He was born (13)during the times "when the Revolutionary War fires were kindling". His parents were (11)Patrick and (4)Sarah (Hennen/Heaney) Callen, who were of Scotch-Irish descent.

Hugh was 15 years old when George Washington took office as the first president of the United States on April 30, 1789.

The next we hear of Hugh he is 19 years of age and is (5)listed in the Westmoreland County Militia from May 23 to June 1, again from Sept. 22 to Dec. 23 of 1792 under the command of Captain Sampson Archer. From Oct 8 to Dec 7, 1793 Hugh and John Callen are listed under the command of Captain Jeremiah Murries. Then from June 19 to Aug 12 1794 Hugh and John are under the command of Lieut. James Nicholson at Owens Island and other stations. Hugh was given an honorable discharge as a good soldier on Aug 12, 1794.

By occupation Hugh was a farmer. (9)In March of 1796 Hugh Callen settled on a tract of land (in Westmoreland Co, which became a part of Armstrong Co in 1800) and made initial improvements to this property which was located 2 or 3 miles southwest of Kittanning. It contained in its northwestern and central parts the headwaters of Pine Run, nearly 2/3 of the southwestern part of its southern half being in what is now South Buffalo Township. Also in the northwestern part were the last vestiges of an Indian village.

(9)Hugh "went sometime afterward...to get a wife, and during his absence John Cowan took possession of his cabin of which he was informed by Mrs. Rayburn (Hugh's sister "Nellie"), at whose house he stopped on his return. He said nothing except to ask for something to eat." Hugh's bride was MARY (Unknown) whose date of birth was Oct 3, 1775.

Hugh and Mary started a family very shortly after their return. It appears that the first six children born to this couple were born on the farm Hugh had prepared for his bride.

(9)"On October 29, 1805 this land was surveyed to Archibald McCall and Hugh Callen, and on May 9, 1807 the patent for 409 acres and 31 perches, called 'Last Night' was granted to them. On Feb 13, 1810, petition having been made, McCall released to Hugh 160 acres of the western side which Hugh conveyed to James Kiskadden on March 17, 1810 for $640.00."

(29)It appears that Hugh and his wife and family moved north shortly after this land transaction, since he and James Callen (a brother) appear in the 1810 census in Toby Township. Toby Township was then a part of Armstrong County, and was later made part of Clarion County in 1839.

(13)"In 1812 Hugh bought three hundred acres and allowances which plot included the greater part of the present site of Callensburg. He settled here the same year, building a house south of Licking [a creek] very near the spot where now stands a large poplar tree. This tree grew from a twig used by Mr. Callen as a riding whip. On his return from church at Concord one Sunday he stuck the whip into the ground, and this lone poplar stands today (1883) as a monument to the piety of him who planted it."

Soon after buying this plot of land and making provisions for his family, Hugh entered the War of 1812. Hugh served as a private in that struggle and (13)is said to have received a pension for his services. (We have searched for these pension records for many years, in many places, under many variations of spellings, but haven't been able to locate them yet.)

After the War of 1812 it seems that life became as settled and carefree as pioneer life could become, with the farming to be done and the children growing. (29)Thomas, the oldest son, married and gave them their first grandchild about 1819.

(4)In 1824 Hugh's parents released land to Hugh in Fairview Township, Westmoreland Co, which Hugh eventually sold to his cousin John Hennen of Huntington Co, Pa.

(11)In 1825 Hugh's father, Patrick, died.

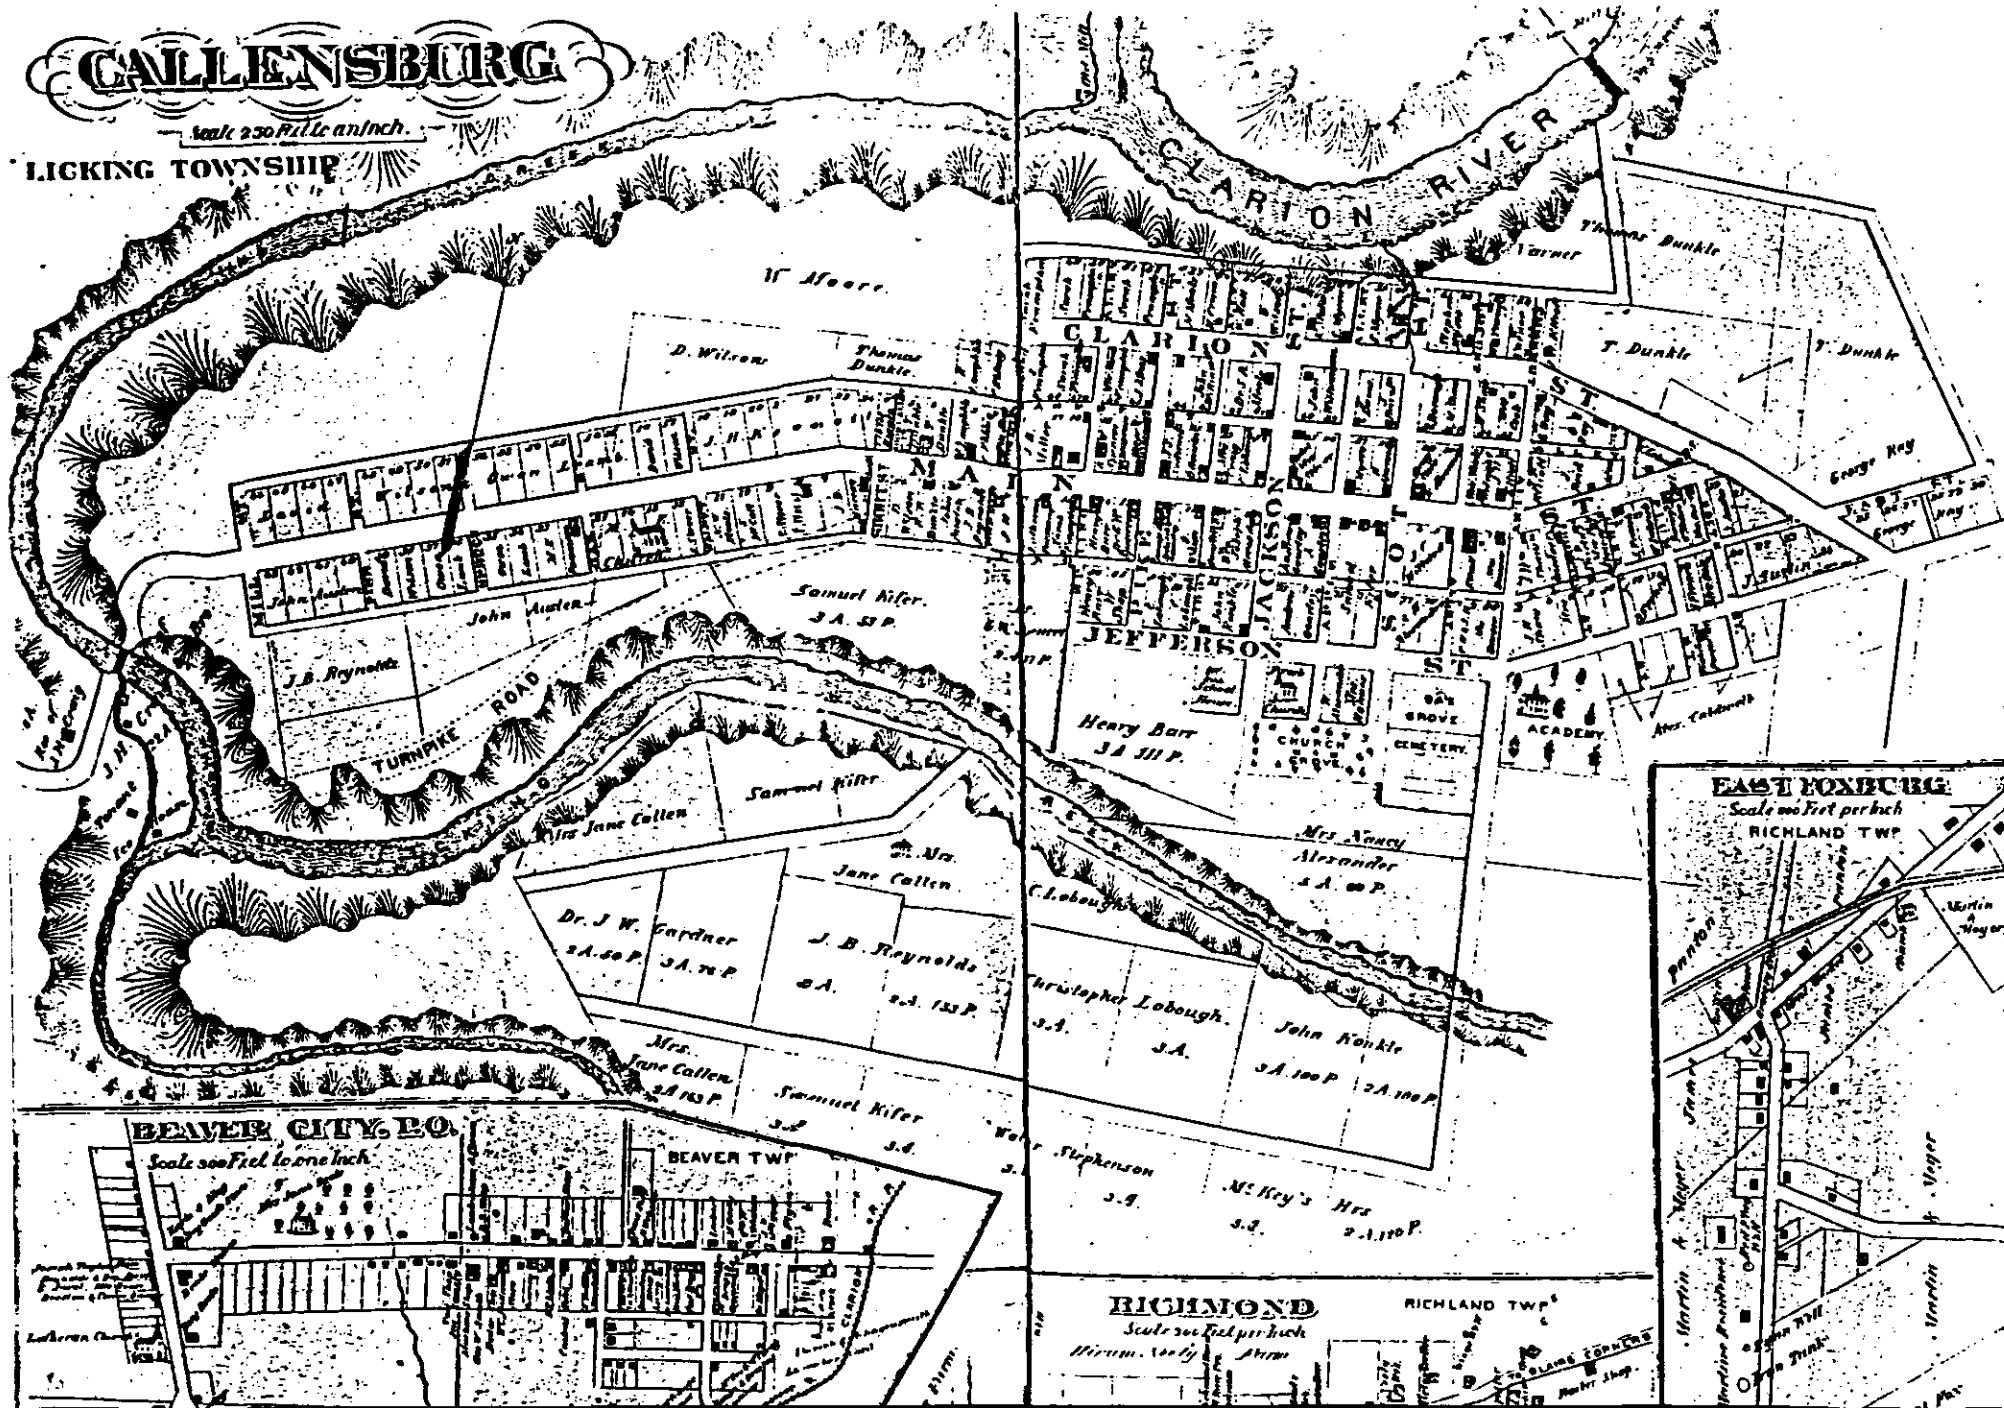

(13)In 1826 a survey was made of the Clarion River, with a view to locating the Pennsylvania canal. The Clarion River was at that time, (15)"called Stump Creek, and sometimes Toby's Creek--the names of two Indian trappers who went up the river with a canoe nearly every fall and trapped in the winter, returning in the spring with their canoe laden with furs and venison." (36B)In 1817 Daniel Stanard, a member of a surveying party remarked that the water sounded like a distant clarion, eventually [by 1819] the name gained favor.

With the survey of the Clarion River, which ran through Hugh's property, Hugh (15)"conceived the idea of founding a town on his farm. He thought it would be an important place along the canal, judging from the formation of the river at this point that several locks would be necessary to admit the boats up and down the canal.

Before the town was laid out the hope of getting the canal had almost gone. Yet he did not abandon his projected town, knowing that if the canal failed - the river and a good section of country would be still left, and that at some time it would likely draw the farmers there to trade at the stores. Anyhow, he wished to sell that farm, and if he could get people to buy lots that was a sufficient reason for starting a town."

(15)"...In imagination go back...and you will see a beautiful farm here--the land beautiful, but not a house on it, and the fence poor. A few men are standing in a group, and among them is Mr Callen, with his stalwart form, and a young man 27 years old, and with a compass sighting across the fields...he has never surveyed much, but is pretty correct and thinks he can lay out the town; you inquire his name and you learn it is Sidle Lobough."

Previous to selling lots in his town, (13)"Mr Callen reserved three acres whereupon to build a Presbyterian church, this plot included the cemetery. The open lot...north of Main Street whereon the town spring rises, was excluded from the list of 'lots for sale'. That never-failing fountain of clear, pure water is a reminder of Hugh Callen's far-sightedness and public spirit. It was reserved for the public good, and to prevent it's being purchased by any private individual, he deeded it to the town."

"Hugh has the unique honor piloting the first missionary into the settlement, and blazing the way for his return with his axe."
(14)"At this time the erection of a church building was undertaken but owing to their limited means it was not finished for eight or ten years. With the characteristic spirit of the fathers they completed one corner of the building, and therein continued to hold church services and Sunday School until such a time as they were able to finish the structure. If you had been on the ground near where the present splendid building stands on a Sabbath morning...you would have seen a small group of persons devoutly seated to hear the first sermon preached by Rev Robert McGarraugh, of the Presbyterian church. He was also the first minister to preach the gospel east of the Allegheny River in Clarion County. The ladies were dressed in homespun cloth, no trails swept after them; their bonnets were substantial and large, and their shoes proportioned to their feet. The men were also comfortably dressed in homespun cloth. They all appeared clean and healthy in appearance. The ground under the shade trees and the pulpit was of the same material. Shortly after logs were used for seats, and a pulpit with a clapboard roof over it was built for the preacher. In this style they worshipped for several years during the summer, and in the winter they worshipped in the private houses of Messers. Callen, Elliott and others. In the grove communion services were held for years."

(13)"Hugh Callen was above all others indented with the first 16 years of the life of the village that he planned" and (13)"named in honor of his family". "He was not a particularly remarkable man. He was a strong man in a moral sense; an honorable man in his dealings with men; a Christian and a patriot."

(13)"He was called to Clarion in 1842, as a witness on a land case, but he never gave his testimony. While eating supper he was taken sick, and died that night, February 10, 1842, in his 69th year. His remains lie in Callensburg Cemetery."

His wife, Mary, died (16) on September 29, 1845 and is laid to rest beside her husband in the Callensburg Oak Grove Cemetery. His will is filed in Clarion County, and was administered by his sons John and Hugh, Jr.

1,4-ELEANOR CALLEN/ Patrick Callen

ELEANOR CALLEN (called (11)Elondor and (10)Nellie) was born in (12)1774 in Westmoreland Co, Pa. She was the daughter of Patrick and Sarah (Hennen) Callen. She married (10)JAMES RAYBURN who was born in 1769 in Ligonier Valley, Pa son of a Scotch emigrant. Their marriage date is uncertain, but probably (9)around 1797. (10)James Rayburn moved to North Buffalo Township in now Armstrong Co, Pa about 1797 with Patrick Callen, his father-in-law. James was a Democrat and an active member of the Seceder (United Presbyterian) church. (12)He died in 1837, Nellie died in 1850, both are buried in the Slate Lick United Presbyterian Church Cemetery, North Buffalo Twp.

1,5-JOHN CALLEN/ Patrick Callen

(5)JOHN CALLEN is believed to be the son of Patrick and Sarah (Hennen) Callen. The PA Archives shows that John served with Hugh Callen in the Westmoreland Co Militia for the state of Pa. He served during 1793 to 1794 under the command of Lieut. James Nicholson. Nothing else is known about this man.

1,6-MARY CALLEN/ Patrick Callen

(11)POLLY CALLEN, (Polly being a nickname for Mary), was the daughter of Patrick and Sarah (Hennen) Callen and was born sometime between 1775-1795. (18)About 1815 she became the second wife of JOHN GALBRAITH, Sr. b 1780, who's first wife, Rebecca Smith, died shortly after the birth of her second child. John Galbraith Sr was the only son of a Scotch-Irish emigrant who fought in the Revolutionary War and was listed as missing in action, never to be heard of again. John Sr and Polly settled in Jefferson County where they established their home in Beaver Township.

1,7-SARAH CALLEN/ Patrick Callen

SARAH CALLEN was the daughter of Patrick and Sarah (Hennen) Callen. According to Patrick's will she married Mr. Brandon - we believe he might have been ELLIOT BRANDON of Venango Co, Pa., but no proof at this time.

1,8-DAVID CALLEN/ Patrick Callen

We believe this man, DAVID CALLEN, to be the son of Patrick and Sarah (Hennen) Callen since he is listed among the "Legatees" in Patrick's will, and also mentioned in Hugh Sr's will. (30)He was born around 1792/1793 in Westmoreland Co, Pa.

David served in the War of 1812. (13)"In the autumn, 'seeding time' of 1812 a draft for a six months' term was made on the settlements south of the river. On the 25th of September, John, Alexander, Thomas, and James Guthrie...and a few others met at Philip Clover, Sr's house, and after having made a temporary organization, with John Guthrie as captain, left for the south. Judge Clover says: "It was a sad day for all. I well remember, as a boy the morning they started...When they were all ready to go they discharged their guns into a tree top that stood near by, and amid many tears they marched away." On their way they were joined by many others, and then proceeded to Pittsburgh. They encamped on the site of Allegheny, then a mere thicket, with one hut on it, and on October 2 a permanent organization was effected. The company was incorporated with the 1st Regiment Pennsylvania militia, John Frees, colonel; Second Brigade, commanded by General Crooks..." Those from Armstrong Co, nearly, if not quite all, came from north of the Redbank" (The Redbank is the river that divides the counties of Armstrong and Clarion) ...listed is David Callen.

(30)"...this consolidation was on the day of muster, at Dunlap's Plains, near Pittsburg, on the 2d day of October, 1812...From Pittsburg they marched, under command of General Crooks, to Sandusky Plains (located in north western Ohio) where they united with the troops under General Harrison, said General Harrison assuming the command. From Sandusky Plains they marched to the rapids on the Maumee River where they laid off and constructed the fort known as Fort Meigs, and that during the entire term of his service he was working upon said fort."

(30)David was honorably discharged at Fort Meigs, Ohio on April 2, 1813. He apparently returned to his home in Pennsylvania, for his pension papers state that on July 15, 1816, David married ELIZABETH FLEMING, in Westmoreland Co. (37A)Elizabeth was born in 1794, the daughter of James Fleming. "David Callen and Samuel Holler married two Fleming sisters, Elizabeth and Jane, respectively. All of David Callen's and Samuel Holler's children were born in Pennsylvania. The two families emigrated together to around Peoria, Ill. and most of their [grand]children were born at or near Sparland, Ill. a little town just above Peoria on the Illinois River..."

The next we hear of David, he was 57 years old, and living in Marshall County, Illinois - date October 29, 1850 - where he made application for Bounty Land as a soldier having been engaged in the Military Service. He was subsequently awarded two Bounty Land grants, one for 80 acres.

(37A)Elizabeth died in 1864. (30)In 1871 David was living in Fairfield, Wayne Co, Ill, and he applied and received a pension amounting to $8.00 a month.

On December 28th, 1874 David, then living in Corning, Adams Co, Iowa, discovered upon leaving that he had misplaced his pension papers. So on March 15, 1875, then a resident of Salina, Salina Co, Kansas, David applied for replacement papers.

David died December 7, 1884 in Zif, Ill. aged almost 92 years old. (37A)"Samuel Holler and his wife are buried near Sparland and Elizabeth Callen is also buried there, while David Callen is buried at Fairfield, Ill. where his son James is also buried."

LINE OF PATRICK CALLEN - 3RD GENERATION

1,9-THOMAS CALLEN/ Hugh Sr/ Patrick Callen

THOMAS CALLEN was born on (1)September 28, 1797 in Westmoreland Co, Pa, in an area which later became part of Armstrong Co, when that county was formed in 1800. Thomas was the oldest son of Mary and Hugh Callen, Sr. founder of Callensburg, Pa.

(29)In 1820 Thomas was listed in the U.S. census records for the first time as the head-of-the-household and living in Toby Township, Armstrong Co. By that time he had married (29-6)MARY "ANN" JACKSON (12)who was born 1794.

(29)In 1830 Thomas was listed in the census records living in Perry Twp, Armstrong Co.

(19)In 1833 Thomas settled in Jefferson Co. (13)"Thomas and [his brother] John were known throughout Jefferson and Elk Counties as great hunters, those regions being then an uninhabited wilderness." (22)In those days "hunters were paid for killing animals that were considered predators by the early settlers. Cows, pigs, chickens and other farm animals were necessary for the survival of life and the pioneers wanted no wild animals feasting on the domestic animals...

"Jefferson County was obligated by action of the State Legislature to pay a bounty on wolves, panther, fox and wild cats or "bob" cats. Bounty for wolves and panthers was set at $12.00, cats brought $1.00 each and full grown fox was worth thirty-seven and one-half cents...In a day when a man's average wages could be pegged at fifty cents, a bounty of twelve dollars was big money and sometimes the only cash money a family could count on.

"To collect the bounty, a person had to present the full hide of an animal after which the ears were cut off and the hide returned for the owner to sell for whatever he could get for it.

"Kate Scott in her county history attributes the payment of the first panther bounty ($12.00) to Thomas Callen, but the court house records would indicate that William Long should be given credit...It might also be noted that a bounty was also paid on crows and squirrels because they were so plentiful and crows were difficult to raise in the wilderness. Crows brought three cents each and squirrels brought one and one-half cents."

(19)Eldred Twp was organized in Jefferson Co in 1836 and was named after Nathaniel B Eldred the president judge of the district. With the formation of this new township, the first election was held and Thomas Callen was elected "Overseer-of-the-Poor". "The Overseer-of-the-Poor was to find and list all the names of those children whose parents were unable to pay for their education, including schoolbooks, and stationery. They were to keep records of all costs for these children's education and levy and collect, in the same way as road taxes were levied and collected, the amount of money needed from their townships, boroughs, wards, or districts, plus 5% for their trouble."

(19)At the September 16th township session of 1836 petition was made for a road from Mill Creek (a stream three or four miles from Sigel), near John Wilson's, to Maize Gap on the Clarion River. On May 10, 1837 the petition was read and approved with Thomas Callen named as the overseer of the road construction of this project.

(20)About September of 1846 Thomas Callen, then of Sigel, Eldred Twp, Jefferson Co, Pa died without leaving a will. His estate was settled by his oldest son Jackson and filed on September 25, 1846.

(29)After the death of Thomas, his wife Ann and her children (with the exception of Hugh) moved to Kellersburg, Madison Twp, Armstrong Co and lived next door to a man presumed to be her younger brother. He was Hugh C Jackson, and one of his sons was named Callen M. The neighbors must have enjoyed having Jackson Callen and Callen Jackson living so close to each other.

(18)Ann (Jackson) Callen died in 1879, approximately age 85, and is buried in Kellersburg, Pa beside the Evengelical Missionary Church along with several of her children and grandchildren. Although Thomas' name is inscribed on her tombstone, he may be buried in Sigel in an unmarked grave.

JOHN CALLEN was born (1)Oct 31, 1799 in Westmoreland Co, Pa. He was (13)"known throughtout Jefferson and Elk counties as a great hunter, those regions being then an uninhabited wilderness."

(35K)"I have a Carving Set, made by a John Callen, son of Hugh. A knife and fork. The steel came from England and the handles are Buckhorn. John Callen killed the deer from which he obtained the horns used for the handles."

(29)Pa census records seem to indicate that John moved from area to area:

- 1820 Butler Twp, Butler Co
- 1830 Clarion Twp, Armstrong Co
- 1840 Monroe Twp, Armstrong Co - shown as married -no children
- 1850 Clarion Twp, Clarion Co shows wifes name as Elizabeth, they had two daughters, also living with them is Isabella Kiskadin

We believe that John's wife was ELIZABETH KISKADDEN (29) born 1803 (11) daughter of Thomas Kiskadden of Buffalo Twp, Armstrong Co who died April 27, 1839 leaving unmarried daughters Elizabeth, Isabella, and Mary. Thomas Kiskadden's will was witnessed by James & Matthew Rayburn, cousins of John Callen.

John died October 7, 1866 near Clarion, Clarion Co, Pa place of burial unknown. (28) A notation in a family Bible shows Elizabeth died March 6, 1863 - we are not sure if she is John's wife Elizabeth since we have been unable to find any other death record.

DAVID CALLEN was born November 29, 1803 in Armstrong County, Pa. He married (23-24) MARY WEIR, who was born (29) June 1815 probably in Wilmington, Delaware. She was the daughter of Capt John and Jane (Roney) Weir.

Mary's family moved to Butler Co in 1819 and settled on a tract of land located on the road between Freeport and Butler, which Mr. Weir named "Disappointment Farm". Mary's sister, Sophia Weir married Robert Morris, (see land transaction between Patrick Callen and a Robert Morris 1811).

(29) David and Mary settled in Freeport, Armstrong Co, Pa around or before 1840. (11) On April 4, 1848 David bought "in-lot No. 184" for $35.00 - on January 17, 1849 he sold lot no 184 to James B Atkinson for $100.00 - not a bad profit for 1 years time.

(11) David died in February or March of 1850, aged only 47. (29) Mary (Weir) Callen continued to live in Freeport until after the 1870 census. She is shown on the 1900 census records in S. Buffalo Twp, Armstrong Co. Her nephew John Weir was living in the same home at that time.

Will of DAVID CALLEN
(filed Freeport Borough, Armstrong Co, Pa)

I David Callen of the Borough of Freeport, Armstrong County, & State of Pennsylvania, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

And first I direct that my body be decently interred in the burying ground of the Borough aforesaid according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of which I am a member and that my funeral be conducted in a manner corresponding with My estate and situation in life.

And as to such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to intrust me with, I dispose of the Same as follows:

First - I direct that all my funeral expences be paid as soon after my decease as possible out of the first moneys that shall come into the hands of my executors, and that all outstanding debts, due me, shall be collected and gathered in as soon as practicable, and also that all the just debts which I owe be discharged by My Executors in a manner least injurious to my Estate.

Secondly - I will and bequeath the remainder of my estate of whatsoever name or nature the Same may be to my beloved wife Mary Callen -

Thirdly - I hereby appoint and ordain my wife Mary Callen, and my esteemed friend John Weir Jr the executors of this my last will and testament

In testimony whereof I have hereunto Set my hand and seal this the twenty-third day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and fifty.

Witnessed by us in the presence of the Testator and in the presence of each other.

obituary of MRS. ELIZA CALLEN
(from Clarion Democrat, Aug 7, 1902)

Mrs. Eliza Callen died at her residence near Kingsville on July 31, 1902 aged 91 years. Her 91st birthday came on the day of her death.

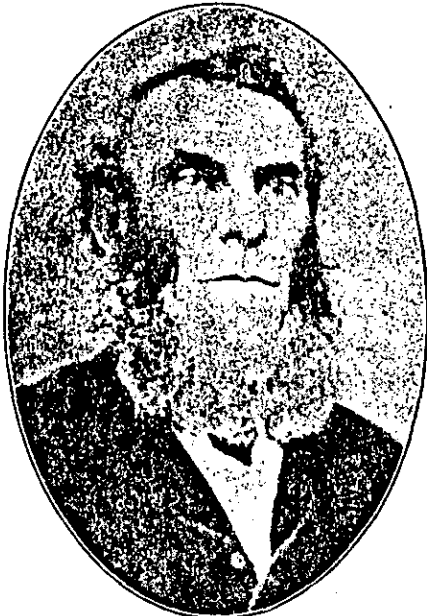

Mother Callen, as she was familiarly called, was one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of the county. She came to the county in early life when wilderness was the rule rather than cleared land.

Deceased was a firm believer in, and an intelligent defender of the doctrines of the New Testament interpreted by the Baptist church of which she has long been a consistent and faithful member.

Appropriate funeral services were conducted at her late residence, by Rev W.B. Purdy, and the large congregation present indicated the high esteem in which she was held in the community.

1,16-HUGH CALLEN JR/ Hugh Sr/ Patrick Callen

HUGH CALLEN JR was born September 2, 1813 in Toby Twp, Armstrong Co, Pa. (13)"on the old Callen homestead, across Licking".

HUGH CALLEN, JR.

(6)In 1842 he married JANE E ELLIOT who was born Jan 3, 1816. By occupation he was a farmer, and made his permanent residence on his father's farm.

(13)"He was a man of sterling qualities, of great stability of character, firm in his convictions, a faithful friend, and an unpretentious and exemplary Christian. All who knew him respected him, and now his memory is revered."

Hugh died March 17, 1881. His headstone reads "Weep not he is at rest How desolate our home bereft of thee". (29)In 1900 Jane was living in Clarion Co at the home of her daughter. Jane died August 11, 1908. Both are buried in the Callensburg Cemetery.

obituary of JANE E (ELLIOT) CALLEN
(Clarion County, Pa)

Jane E Callen was born in Westmoreland Co, Pa, Jan 3, 1816, and died in Callensburg, Pa Aug 11, 1908, in her 93rd year. Deceased married Hugh Callen in 1842. Of this union one daughter was born, Mrs. Ross Nichols, of Callensburg, who still survives her parents.

Deceased was a lady of marked piety, one whose labors of love and devotion to the cause of Christ will continue in this community through time. In early life she united with the church of her choice, therein proved faithful, abounding in labors until she fell sweetly to sleep to awake in the church triumphant.

Hugh Callen, husband of the deceased preceeded her to the heavenly home March 17, 1881.

Hugh Callen Sr. father-in-law of the deceased together with the entire family figured prominently in the early history of this community. He was born in 1773 when the Revolutionary fires were kindling. He served as a private soldier in the War of 1812. He donated the Presbyterian denomination the present site for their church and buring ground. At or near the same time, 1825, he laid out the village of Callensburg and named it in honor of the family.

Hugh Callen, Sr. has the unique honor piloting the first missionary into the settlement, and blazing the way for his return with his axe. At this time the erection of a church building was undertaken but owing to their characteristic spirit of the fathers, they completed the corner of the building and therein continued to hold services church and school until such time as they were able to finish the structure.

With the decease of Jane E Callen the immediate family passes away but their works remain a witness of how well they wrought.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev M.B. Riley from the Presbyterian church and the remains were laid to rest by the side of her husband to await the reward of the faithful.

Will OF HUGH CALLEN JR
(filed Clarion County, Pennsylvania)

In the name of God Amen

I Hugh Callen of the Township of Licking, County of Clarion, State of Pennsylvania Yeoman being of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding and considering the uncertainty of life do make and publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time heretofore made. As to such estate as it hath pleased God to intrust me with I dispose of the same as follows viz:

I direct that my just debts, funeral expenses and cost of settling my estate be paid out of my personal Effects and the remainder if any including my household goods, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Jane E Callen absolute.

I give and devise to my said wife Jane E Callen all the real estate that I may possess at the time of my decease or that may fall to my estate after my decease during her natural life if she shall so long remain my widow. Where by death or otherwise my said wife Jane E Callen shall cease to be my widow I give and devise all my real estate wherever located aforesaid to my daughter Sarah intermarried with Ross Nickle.

I do hereby constitute and appoint my friend and neighbor Alexander Colwell of the Township aforesaid Sole Executor of this my last will and testament.

In Witness Whereof I Hugh Callen the Testator have to this my will written on this sheet of paper set my hand and seal the fourteenth day of March AD one thousand eight hundred and eighty one.

obituary of MRS JANE (SHADLE) CALLEN (newspaper??)

Mrs. Jane Callen died at Forestville, on Saturday, July 21, after a long sickness, at the age of 68 years.

Jane Shadle was born in Huntington county, this state, February 12, 1820. When she was 12 years old her parents came to Clarion county, and settled in the neighborhood. She married Watson Callen in 1840, and to them were born five sons and seven daughters, of whom two sons and five daughters are living.

For more than five years Mrs. Callen had been a sufferer from a complication of paralysis, spinal disease and rheumatism.

Soon after her marriage she united with the Presbyterian church at Callensburg, and since that time her aim was to lead a christian life. Of late she longed to depart, and escape from her sufferings and be at rest. The funeral was held in the Wildwood cemetery on Monday.

1,18-JAMES RAYBURN/ Eleanor Callen/ Patrick Callen

JAMES RAYBURN was born October 26, 1801. (23)James' occupation was farming.

(23)He was a Jeffersonian Democrat, always active in his party, frequently representing his district in county democratic conventions. Although he never sought public office he was frequently elected and served in the office of Justice of the Peace.

He was United Presbyterian in faith, and was a member of the Buffalo United Presbyterian Church which was located on the Rayburn farm. "A man of excellent judgement and conservative views, yet positive and earnest in convictions, he was extremely popular with his neighbors."

After the death of his first wife JANE GALBRAITH he married MARGARET BOYD born ca 1820, she was the daughter of Robert Boyd and wife Jane (who was born ca 1769 and was living with James when the 1860 census was taken.)

It's interesting to note that living next door to them was George Weir who was born in Pennsylvania (see 1,12 David & Mary (Weir) Callen).

(37B)Claude C Callen says "Grandfather...was very fond of singing, and a song which he was especially fond of and sang quite often, while going about his work or chores was, "I must tell Jesus all of my troubles, I cannot bear my burden alone". Grandfather was quite religious and very sincere in it. When about 12 or 13 years of age, I was a member of his Sunday School class at the Benton Methodist Church, and I found him to be very interesting as a teacher, in fact, the best Sunday School teacher in my experience.

"He always wore a full beard as far back as I can remember him. He was quite an active man, even up to his later years. At past 60 he would often break into a slow run instead of a walk when he was in a hurry."

obituary of ARTHUR FLEMING CALLEN
 (Mt Ayr "Twice-A-Week-News")

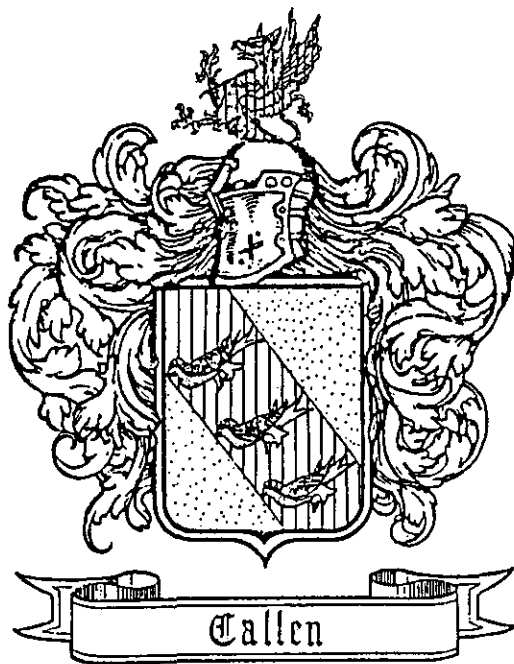

Was born in Armstrong Co., Pa. May 14, 1832. Moved to Marshall County, Illinois, where he was united July 2, 1855 to Mary Rebecca Holler. They spent 51 years of a happy union together.

To them were borne nine children; two died in infancy. Charlie Callen lived to be 26 years old. Three of the sons and two daughters were at home in his last illness and were at the bedside when he breathed his last. Mr. Callen moved to Benton from Clio, Iowa in 1892, where he lived until the day of his death, April 12, 1906.

He joined the Methodist church when he was about 20 years old, and retained his membership until he came to Benton. There being no Methodist church at this place at this time, he put in his letter with the United Brethern Church. He gave 53 years of his life to the service of the Lord, whom he loved and worshipped. We shall miss him very much in his Sunday School work.

He was a kind and affectionate husband and a loving and consecrated father, and we feel that we have lost a good Christian father when we say "Good Bye" to "Father Callen".

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Hiram Tharp. We laid his body to rest in the Benton Cemetery, to await the sounding of the trumpet in the Resurrection Morn.

obituary of MARY A CALLEN

(Jeffersonian Democrat - Jan 2, 1902, Jan 9, 1902)

We learn that Mrs. Mary A Callen, widow of Hugh Callen, deceased, died last Sunday, Dec. 29th, 1901, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Blanche Stahlman, in Barnett Township, Jefferson County, aged 78 years, 6 months, and 2 days. Five sons and two daughters survive her. Mrs. Callen had lived in Eldred Township about 45 years. Her funeral was on Tuesday, interment being in Mt Tabor Cemetery. Her daughter, Mrs. Stahlman, returns her sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends who showed so much kindness before and after her mother's death.

Mrs. Hugh Callen, one of the oldest ladies of Eldred Township, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Armstrong Stahlman, Dec. 29, and was laid to rest in the Mt Tabor Cemetery, Tuesday Dec. 31, 1901.

The deceased had been a sufferer for many years. She leaves seven children to mourn her loss, five boys and two girls.

Joseph Callen returned to his home in West Virginia after attending his mother's funeral. He was accompanied by his niece, Mabel.

1,27-JOHN CALLEN/ Thomas/ Hugh Sr/ Patrick Callen

(29)JOHN CALLEN was born around 1830 the son of Thomas and Mary Ann (Jackson) Callen. In 1860 he married MARY ANN REDIC (Redick), at which time they were living in Kellersburg, Armstrong Co, Pa, in the home of his mother. (6)Mary Ann was the daughter of William and Jane (Jackson) Redic, and was born ca 1831.

(29)By 1870 they had moved to Parker Twp, Butler Co, Pa. Mary Ann died sometime around 1878, John died sometime around 1888-91. A niece believes they are buried in the Kelly Cemetery in Parker Twp, but no headstones, wills, or obituaries have been found to verify this.

1,31-THOMAS J CALLEN/ James/ Hugh Sr/ Patrick Callen

(36A)THOMAS JEFFERSON CALLEN was born February 2, 1842, the son of James and Eliza W (Laughlin) Callen, and was probably raised in Callensburg. (10)"Until he had attained his majority, Thomas J Callen remained under the parental roof, and then worked for one year in a sawmill.

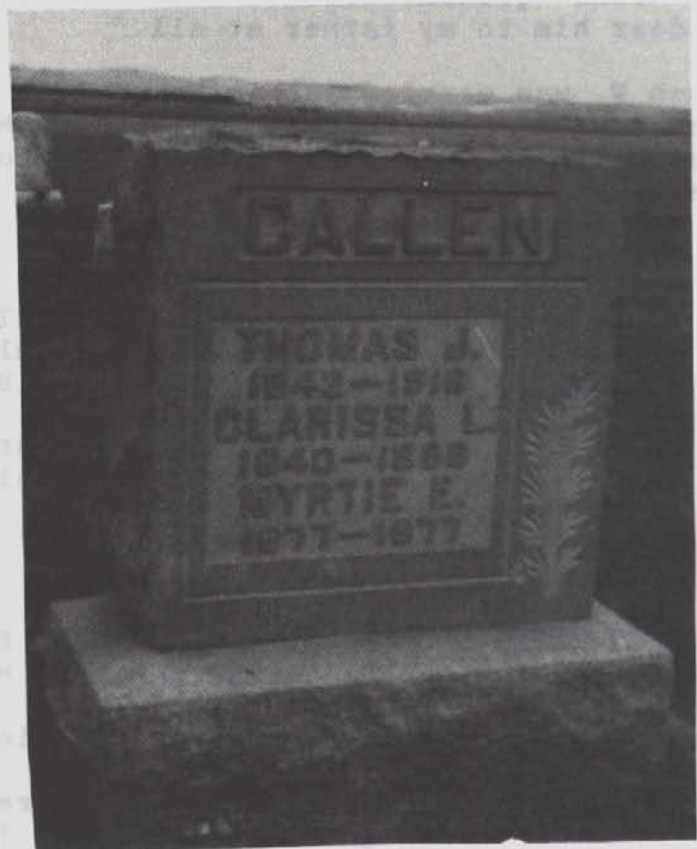

"In February 1864, he enlisted in Co A, 103d P.V.I., the company being first commanded by Capt R Laughlin and later by Capt A. A. Alexander. (15)[He served as a Rank Corporal, and mustered out June 25, 1865.] On receiving his discharge our subject returned home, and a short time afterward went to Monroe township, Clarion County, where he rented a farm for four years. He then purchased his present place of ninety-six acres in Piney township, which he has placed under excellent cultivation and improved with good and substantial buildings.

"On September 19, 1869, in Limestone Township, Clarion County, Mr Callen was married, by Rev Elder, to Miss CLARISSA L SMITH" who was born in 1840. "Her father, Lucius Smith, was a native of Connecticut, but spent his last years in Clarion county.

"In December, 1889, our subject was again married, this time to Miss ROSE E MOONEY, [who was born (29)September 1850] ceremony being performed by Rev McCurdy. Her father, John Mooney, a retired farmer residing in Churchville Penn was born in Centre county Jan 30, 1827...

"Our subject belongs to the Murphy Grange of Clarion county and to the Grand Army Post of Sligo; and in religious belief both he and his wife are prominent members of the Presbyterian Church. They are widely and favorably known throughout the community and their circle of friends is only limited by their circle of acquaintances."

(29)In 1900 they were living in Piney Twp, Clarion Co. Also living with them was Edward Mooney, brother-in-law (the census incorrectly spelled his name Mohney.)

(35A-35B)SARAH ANN CALLEN was born April 25, 1852 in Callensburg, Clarion Co, Penna. She was the daughter of Watson and Jane (Shadle) Callen. Anna was (18)"reared and educated in Clarion county."

(18)In Jefferson Co, Pa she married FRANCIS ASBURY BIRD who was born (35M)May 1, 1849 in Shickshinny, Luzerne Co, Pa. He was the son of Elisha and Rebecca (Sharp) Bird. (18)"Being left an orphan at nine years of age, he was reared in the home of his sister..." (John F Bird says "As you will see... Aunt Bertha's information given to the Jefferson Co. "Pioneers and People" was not correct. She sent me down the wrong road." We show this for other researchers of the Bird family line to be careful.)

(18)Francis A Bird was reared and educated in Luzerne Co., Pa in the home of his sister, Mary (Bird) Seabert. As a young man Francis was employed by his brother-in-law, Frank A Seabert, operating canal boats from Wilkes Barre, Pa to Baltimore, Maryland. He then became identified with the various operations of the lumber industry. Later becoming one of the prominent lumber operators in the eastern section of Pennsylvania.

(35L)"Francis migrated to eastern Pennsylvania in the early 1870's. There he married, around 1873, Sarah Ann Callen... Francis and his family were devout members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was considered one of the better teachers of the Men's Bible Class. Sometime during his early marriage, he became affiliated with the Raine Andrews Lumber Co. and when they moved their operation to a new operation in West Virginia, Francis and his family went with them. This was about the year 1903...

"The Raine Andrews Lumber Co. set a double-band sawmill and later established and built the town of Evenwood, Randolph Co., West Virginia...

(18)"Mr. Bird is independent in politics and both he and his wife are earnest members of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

Sarah died October 28, 1916 in Evenwood, West Virginia, (35L)she is buried in the Taylor Cemetery, Falls Creek, Washington Twp, Jefferson Co "Located on western side of borough." Francis died May 5, 1930 in Evenwood he is buried in an unmarked grave, beside his wife Sarah.

CALVIN RAYBURN was born October 23, 1850 on the old Rayburn homestead in North Buffalo Twp, Armstrong Co, Pa. He was a twin, his parents were James and Margaret (Boyd) Rayburn.

(10)Calvin attended school at the Slate Lick Academy and entered Princeton University in 1871, graduating in the class of 1875. He taught in the public schools for 3 terms and was principal of Queenstown public school in Armstrong Co one winter.

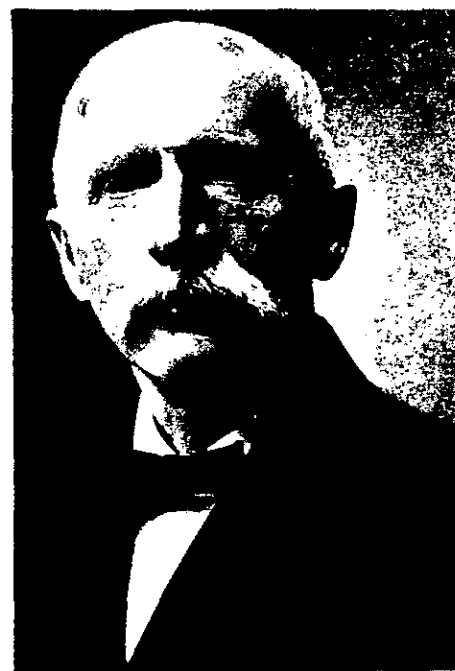

In June 1877 he began his study of law under the Hon. George A. Jenks of Brooksville, who later became the Ass't Attorney General under President Grover Cleveland's administration.

In June 1879 Calvin was admitted to the bar of Jefferson Co, and in November was admitted to practice in Armstrong Co, opening his office in Kittanning. "He was a lawyer of high standing and enjoyed an extensive legal practise."

On October 19, 1886 he married MARGARET MCFADDEN daughter of Dr James McFadden of Buena Vista, Allegheny Co, Pa

In 1889 he was unanimously nominated by the Democratic party of Armstrong Co for President Judge, and won by a majority of 722 votes. He was one of the youngest judges to serve in Penna. "and his services on the bench were characterized by firmness, fairness and legal acumen."

Like his father, Judge Rayburn was an active member of the Democratic party. He was a delegate to the National Convention in Chicago in 1884 at which Grover Cleveland was first nominated for the presidency, and he was a delegate at the National Convention in St Louis in 1904.

CALVIN RAYBURN

"As a man he is pleasant and agreeable; as a lawyer he is careful and correct, and as a counselor is safe. His analysis of a case is very clear and exact, and he is one who would rather win a cause by clearness of statement and justness of argument than by fervor of appeal."

He was "generally beloved for nobility of character". He continued in legal work until his death on May 16, 1929, he is buried in the Kittanning cemetery, Armstrong Co, Pa.

 Dear Edith & nephews & nieces (see descendent 1,95)

I got your letter of Jan 10 and will try to write a few lines. I am still keeping on here with 1 room rented to a good working man. I get a man to do a little work in the yard sometimes but do not expect to keep it up as Allen did but will try to raise some flowers and some garden like lettuce and onions and the like. We have had more frost this winter than for some time and lasted longer, but think it is over now & it makes me want to get started raising something...

I have a telephone now the no is Menlo 4-4565 was a long time getting it...

Good bye with love from Emma Card. write sometimes."

1,48-ALVA B CALLEN/ Arthur F/ David/ Patrick Callen
obituary of ALVA B CALLEN
(Murdo Coyote, - Oct 3, 1919)

ALVA BARRETT CALLEN, the eldest son of Arthur Fleming Callen and Mary Rebecca Holler, was born in Sparland, Ill. on Oct. 15, 1856 and departed this life after a brief illness at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A.J. Johnson on Sept. 24, 1919, age 62 years, 11 months, and 9 days.

The deceased spent his early life in the state of Illinois. When eighteen years old, he with his parents moved to a farm near Clio, Iowa (Wayne Co.). About four years later he was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss JENNIE CLARK. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Humeston, Iowa, where their three children, Claude C., Josie A. and Hattie Belle, were born. Later, Mr. Callen and his father with their families moved to Ringgold Co., Iowa and established what is now known as the present site of Benton. He lived there until the year 1904 when he decided to come West to the new country which was then being opened up west of the Missouri River, and to what is now Jones County. He took up his residence near the present townsite of Murdo, and was one of the oldest and best known residents of that town.

(The following part by Claude C. Callen) -- It was in his home life, surrounded by his wife and family that he spent his happiest and best moments. He was ever a kind and sympathetic and loving husband, father son and brother. He was always ready to make any sacrifice for the family's welfare and comfort; he won their confidence, love and respect. He accumulated no great earthly gifts -- a life patiently and honestly and honorably lived.

He won the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Mr. Callen united with the Methodist Church of Murdo, So. Dakota, March 10, 1912 under the ministry of the Rev. C.B. Harrold, and has since been a devoted and faithful member. He will be greatly missed in the community where he has been so well known. His voice [may] be silent, but the memory of his life, like the fragrance of sweet flowers - the work he has so faithfully done, will live on and keep him fresh in our hearts and minds.

He leaves behind to mourn their loss, two sons... and one daughter,

In the last year and a half, since the death of his devoted wife on March 3, 1918, he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. A.J. Johnson (Hattie Belle Callen). He has greatly missed his wife, who was his companion; his helper; and sometimes, it seemed that he was a bit lonely, and wished to go and be with her. He lived a good life and always interested in the welfare of his own and others, standing out for the higher and better things of the community's life. He was a faithful attendant at church and Sunday School and unless sickness or other good reason kept him away, he was always there. He was a good listener to the preaching of the Word and it always seemed to do him good. He was not much given to criticism, but always manifested the spirit of brotherly love and kindness. Many knew and loved him; his life was not lived in vain. God said: "Your work on earth is done, come up higher." He was patient and bore his suffering at the last, nobly. Everything that mortal hands could do was done to save his life.

The tiny brittle thread that held him soon snapped as under and we believe his soul mounted upon snowy white wings to be with God; we trust that our great loss will be his gain -- he lives on and on, his Heavenly Home will never end. He was ready and we believe, prepared to go; he had made his decision to follow Christ, and Christ, the One, the only One who is able to save, has saved him today and he is in safe-keeping until that great day when we shall all meet again in glad and happy reunion and clasp each other's hands. (End of Claude C. Callen's part)

What is more beautiful than the noble end of a useful life? It is like a beautiful sunrise when the day is young; like rosy-tinted sunset when the day is old. His life was well spent.

Grow old along with me,
The best is yet to be,
The last of life for which
The first was made.

The one thing I find, we two are so joined he can't go to Heaven and leave me behind.

obituary of DAVID D CALLEN
(Isabel, Kansas Paper)

David Dewitt Callen was born at Sparland, Ill. on the third day of December, 1865. At the age of nine, he moved with his parents to Wayne Co, Iowa (near Clio) and later moved to Avoca, Nebraska. While living at Avoca, Nebr, he became acquainted with Miss Jessie Brooks, whom he married on Jan. 19, 1886.

In 1905, Mr. Callen with his family moved to Kansas and took up their residence near Isabel. This has been called home since that time, although during the past few months, Mr. Callen has spent part of his time in Hutchinson, at the home of his son. It was during one of these visits in Hutchinson, that his call came and he entered into his rest on the 12th day of September, 1934.

Mr. Callen was the father of five sons, the oldest having preceded him in death. Mrs. Callen died in 1927 and was buried from the Isabele M.E. Church, and rests near the place where we will place all that remains of her mortal husband.

Those who survive Mr. Callen are four sons... There are also ten grandchildren, one brother and two sisters.

"Uncle Dave" as he was known to everyone in the community was very much a favorite with the young folk. For a number of years he was custodian of the school building and made many friends among the children and the teachers. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the I.O.O.F. Lodge of Isabel, Ks.

Uncle Dave had been ill for some time and his death did not come as a surprise to him. He had made all preparations for the inevitable event. He had selected his hymns, those who were to officiate, and those who were to bear his remains to the silent city on the hillside.

We mourn his loss, but we know there has been many a happy reunion and out in that Great Beyond life goes on and on in a land that shall know no night, and where there shall be no more death.

Funeral services were held at the M.E. Church, Friday afternoon with the Rev. J.W. Millsap, officiating. Internment was at the Isabel Cemetery.

The Larrabee Mortuary was in charge.

"Granddad was quite the artist. He did some charcoal sketches of the barn on his father's farm... also a sketch of the cabin in the mountains that they built and used for many years when they went hunting. Granddad sketched these drawings in 1892 when he was just sixteen years old. The earliest drawings by Granddad were done when he was thirteen; they are of a "Thanksgiving turkey" he raised and of a favorite barnyard cat. They are so good! He loved to draw and paint; he never took a lesson and did it only for his own amusement and pleasure. He kept a great deal of what he did draw over the years and I have most of what remains. He seldom shared these accomplishments with others, and I am sure that he would be more than a little embarrassed to find them preserved, some of them framed and hung."

"Another cherished family heirloom I have is a few of the tail feathers from the first wild turkey Granddad succeeded in bagging. He brought it home for a family dinner when he was six years old. Mom says that her grandmother told her that when he came home with the turkey he had to drag it, it was almost as big as he was. She kept a few of the feathers and gave them to my grandmother in the 1920's."

"He was a real scholar and had a huge library. Everytime he came to visit he brought each of us grandchildren a book or two. We always knew that for each birthday, each Christmas, and each holiday one of the presents we would receive from him would be a book. He always told us that it was a crime to burn, destroy, throw away, or mistreat a book. He said that books were the friends we could always depend on, he said they were the constant companion. His influence certainly bred a love for books in me."

"Granddad had a teaching degree: he went to Clarion State College. Although he never taught, he said the most valuable thing he had other than his children and grandchildren was his education.

(35C)ARTHUR ALEXANDER CALLEN was born July 14, 1878 and drowned in 1889, age 11 years.

obituary of ARTHUR A CALLEN

(probably from Brockwayville, Pa newspaper)

Monday morning the villagers were startled by the report that Arthur Callen, an 11-year-old son of Alvin Callen, was drowned in the creek above town. A number of men and boys at once proceeded to the spot where they found those who had preceeded them engaged in searching for the body.

The accident occurred early in the morning, probably between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock. The boy, in company with his little brother, were hunting for their cow. On the creek bank opposite the connecting switch of the R & C and B, R & P railroads Arthur disrobed and waded into the creek. Whether he did so for the purpose of bathing or crossing the creek in further search of the cow is not known. The stream was swollen and muddy from the heavy rains of the previous night, and the water was continually rising.

The boy had taken but a few steps before he got beyond his depth. He was unable to swim and sank at once. The little lad on the bank was badly frightened and ran for home, fully a quarter of a mile distant. Mr. Callen was away at work, and it was some time before any men could be found. Even then the little fellow was so overcome by fright and exhaustion that he was unable to locate the spot where the accident occurred. It was mostly by searching up and down the creek bank that the place was located by finding the missing boy's clothing. A.W. Sibley and Dan Riley were among the first to reach the spot, and they waded and dove in the stream, but could find nothing. A boat was brought and with rakes attached to ag poles the bottom was dragged, but the water had risen so rapidly and the current was so swift but little headway could be made.

Several men then entered the stream and by wading and swimming engaged in the search. These were more successful, for at a bend in the creek about eight or ten rods below Theodore Levis touched the body with his foot and quickly brought it to the surface. It had lodged on a log and was in water four or five feet deep.

Although the body had been in the water over three hours attempts were made at resuscitation, which of course proved unavailing. The funeral took place on Tuesday forenoon.

(35J)PHILO LEROY CALLEN was born in Brockwayville, Pa on October 22, 1891, the son of Alvin C and "Maggie" (Bowdish) Callen. He married JOSEPHINE BROHAMER, who was born in Missouri. Josephine was a candymaker.

(35E)Philo's mother "died when Philo was very young. His father lived in Pittsburgh, and it was from there that the children were admitted to the Uniontown (Jumonville) Soldier's Orphans School; later transferred to the Soldiers' Orphans Industrial School at Scotland, where Philo graduated in 1910.

"At Scotland, Philo was a varsity member of the football and baseball teams. His pleasure here was, as most old timers will tell you, to play against the Carlisle Indians made famous by world renowned Jim Thorpe. He was a Sergeant in Company B of the school battallion before entering the band.

"A few years ago, Philo retired from the University of Washington in Pathology. Here he was the senior laboratory assistant in charge of preparing specimens. He had complete charge of the medical museum. Upon his retirement, his fellow employees gave a testimonial party at which time they presented him with a book of his past life styled after the famous Ralph Edwards television production "This is Your Life".

Since retiring, Philo finds time to do some carpentering, especially work in remodeling. His hobby is chiefly travel, and too, enjoys visiting the sick and helping those in need in any way possible.

And so, as were his ancestral families devoutly religious and extremely kind and generous people, we find these same qualities in Philo Callen, our friend and schoolmate."

(35J)Josephine died December 26, 1964, Philo died August 26, 1988, they are both buried in Renton, Washington.

(35L)"CLYDE CLIFTON BIRD, the son of Francis and Sarah (Callen) Bird, was born February 18, 1889 in Brockport, Jefferson Co, Pennsylvania. He was educated in Jefferson Co., living in several small towns within the County; Brockport, Lanes Mills, and Brockwayville.

"Clyde and his brothers were interested in music and played types of horns in the town bands. They also sang in the church choirs in whatever town they were living. The family were devout Methodists.

At the age of 14, Clyde moved with the family to a new lumber camp in West Virginia, to be named at a later date, Evenwood located in Randolph Co., about 20 miles from the county seat of Elkins, WV. Here he worked in the timber at various jobs. And for his enjoyment played the Cornet in the Raine Andrew Lumber Co. symphony and marching band which consisted of 45 members.

"Here, in Evenwood, West Virginia, he married on June 30, 1913 to EVA BESSIE ROSENCRANCE, daughter of John and Mary Elizabeth (Pingley) Rosencrance. Two of their children were born in Evenwood. Timber became scarce in 1917 and the Raine Andrews Lumber Co closed their operation.

"During World War I a new General Electric Plant was being built in Erie, Pa and workers were needed for the war effort. Again the entire families moved to this new venture seeking work. Clyde was employed in the Shipping Dept. on October 15, 1917. The other brothers also were employed at various jobs. A new town, later named Lawrence Park, was built by the G.E. Co...

"Clyde was an active participant in the new town and was active in civic, church and especially the Lawrence Park Volunteer Fire Department, later being named a Captain. On a Saturday afternoon, March 24, 1928, at age 39, Clyde was killed fighting a fire in the Power House of the General Electric Co. Clyde's wife Eva, died 2 years later, September 3, 1930 of kidney failure. They left 3 young children orphans.

1,101-EDITH CALLEN/ Elliot N/ William/ David/ Patrick Callen (37E)EDITH CALLEN was born July 26, 1887? in Omaha, Nebraska. She was the daughter of Elliot N and Nancy (Nutter) Callen. She married ROBERT CARR (there is a street in St Louis named for him) they were divorced. Edith was very interested in her family heritage and gathered a lot of information that has been passed on to us by her nephew John E Callen.

Exerpt from letter sent to Edith:
"Boise, Idaho, Jan. 29, 1947

I am sorry to have waited so long to answer your letter. I can't give you any information about Callen's except grandma, she was buried near Prescott in a cemetery about 3 miles north but I don't know the name of it. I've heard Ma say her grandmother was a Fleming but that's all I know. There is a little town named Callensburg in Pennsylvania and Ma said grandpa's father gave an acre of land for the school house there & the town was named after him. I saw the name of a Callen woman in a town near here - her name is Elsie M. Callen...Nampa, Idaho. I always search telephone directorys for the name & that's the first one I've found. She might be a relative. One uncle who lived at Benton, Iowa had a large family. If you'd address Mr. Callen, Benton, Ia, you might get some information. I forget that uncles name. There are some relations near Peoria Ill. I have the names of Joe, Arthur, James, of Sparland, Ill, near Peoria- they should have left plenty of decendents. Emma Card could tell you lots...

This is a lovely city (small) but full of soft coal smoke in winter.
There are such lovely trees, an estimated 55000 in the town. The streets are lined with them. I hope you have good luck with your family tree. I wrote down what little Ma told me.

Love & best wishes to all,
Gussie Fleming"

(35L)"JOHN FRANCIS BIRD, the son of Clyde and Eva (Rosencrance) Bird, was born April 17, 1914 in Evenwood, Randolph Co., West Virginia. During the year 1917, the family moved to Erie, Erie Co., Pa where his father Clyde was employed by the General Electric Co. A new town, later named Lawrence Park, a suburb of Erie, was being built to house the new employees streaming in to the new General Electric Plant.

"John grew up in this fascinating turmoil of new construction; new houses, general stores, churches, a community center, municipal buildings, dirt roads and sidewalks. Here he was educated through high school.

"During his teenage years, he caddied at the local golf course and later worked Shorewood on Lake Erie, a fishing resort, where he took care of the rental fishing boats. At age 14, his father Clyde, was killed fighting a fire and two years later his mother Eva died of kidney failure, leaving three young children orphaned.

John married on Jan 22, 1932 to MABEL E REYNOLDS, his high school sweetheart, the daughter of William H and Maude (Dool) Reynolds.

"John took several accounting courses and after a number of jobs (these were the depression years) he was hired as a bookkeeper at the Erie Printing Co. in Erie, Pa. John served in the Navy during World War II and after his discharge he resigned his position at the Erie Printing Co. He enrolled in the printing school at Carnegie Tech under the G.I. bill. He then obtained a position with a large printing firm, The W.H. Kistler Stationary and Printing Co. in Denver, Colorado as Production Manger.

"After thirty years with the same company, John retired in 1976 and moved with his wife to a small fishing village on Mustang Island called Port Aransas, Texas. Here they enjoy the fishing and the Gulf of Mexico.

obituary of VERNON I CALLEN
(Rapid City, S Dakota newspaper)

Vernon I. Callen, 39 year old former Black Hills resident, died of a heart attack Wednesday afternoon in his office in Vallejo, Calif.

A superintendent with the California Allied Company, he was interviewing two ladies for employment at the time. Funeral services are pending.

Callen was born in Murdo where he also received his high school education. He grew up in Murdo, Mitchell and Rapid City. He was married to Virginia Williams some 12 years ago, and moved to California 11 years ago.

Survivors include his widow and an 11-year old son, Douglas, north of Vallejo; his father O.O. Callen, Rapid City; and two sisters, Mrs. Joe Marlovits, Riverside, California and Mrs. Bess Leal, Warm Springs, California; and a brother, Lloyd Callen, Vallejo, California.

Callen's father left Rapid City by plane Thursday for Vallejo to make funeral arrangements.

It would appear that he died on Nov. 3, 1955.

Patrick Callen

(33C)LLOYD TRUDELL CALLEN was born in Hyde Park, Westmoreland Co, Pa on February 9, 1920. He is the son of Charles J and Hulda (Thompson) Callen. Lloyd was named after Mr. Lloyd and Mr. Trudell who were friends of his father while stationed in France during WWI.

When Lloyd was 18 his mother died. He had to quit school temporarily to help out his family. He returned to school and graduated from Concord Consolidated High School in 1940.

On June 19, 1942 he married OLIVE LOUISE GIBSON (his high school sweetheart) who was born September 10, 1921, the daughter of A Roy and Grace (Emery) Gibson. Olive is a seamstress and mother. She is "the steadying factor in my life... a marvelous woman who deserves tremendous credit and praise."

Lloyd graduated from Practical Bible Institute in NY in 1944, and is an ordained Baptist minister. He became associated with the Church of God, and under this church organization he was transferred to a new church about every three years, all in Ohio. He was transferred from Belle Center to Convoy (near Van Wert), then to McComb, (near Findley), then to Comet (near Akron).

In 1958 he began substitute teaching for the Akron Christian Grade School, and afterward taught in many Christian schools in many states: South Carolina, North Carolina, Florida, and back to Ohio.

Beside being an ordained minister and teacher, Lloyd is an artist, working with oil paints, chalk, and woodburning. Also to help supplement his income to help feed their 11 children, he writes and has worked as a night watchman, plus numerous other jobs. "Enjoy fishing, reading, writing, and gardening."

Lloyd has received a Master of Biblical Theology, and is currently Head of Academic Affairs at Freedlandia College in Cassville, Mo.

SAMUEL CALLEN, SR

We are unsure of the origin of this Callen line. One possibility is that Samuel Callen Sr was a son of Patrick and Sarah (Hennen) Callen but was not mentioned in Patrick's will. There are several reasons for this theory:

- 1 land transaction between Patrick and Samuel
- 2 the obituary of Samuel's daughter-in-law, Jane (Paul) Callen, was found among Patrick's daughter Nellie (Callen) Rayburn's possessions though added after Nellie's death.
- 3 approximate date of birth is in keeping with Patrick's children
- 4 we have found no transactions or connections between Samuel Sr's lines and any other Callen line to date.

2,1-SAMUEL CALLEN, SR

SAMUEL CALLEN, SR was born around 1783 or earlier, (29)figuring he was at least 20 years old when his first son was born. He married (35A)ANN MILLER daughter of Matthew Miller and Margaret Carnahan.

(4)In 1801 Patrick Callen, of Washington Twp, Westmoreland Co., transferred 150 acres of land on "Beaver Run" or "Beaver Dam Run" to Samuel Callen.

(35A)Samuel served in the War of 1812 and was discharged from the service with the rank of 1st Lieutenant.

(4)In 1820 Patrick Callen deeded a second parcel of land in Washington Twp. to Samuel Callen. In 1823 Patrick conveyed land on Beaver Dam Run to Matthew Miller, (Samuel's father-in-law?).

Samuel died in November of 1849 leaving a will. Since his wife is not mentioned in his will, we can assume she was already deceased.

obituary of MRS. JANE H CALLEN
(newspaper - Malcom, Iowa?)

Died, Sept 6th, 1890, Mrs. Jane H Callen of Malcom, Iowa, aged 85 years and 2 days.

Mrs Callen was a resident of Apollo, she was a native of Westmoreland county, Pa, born and raised in the bounds of old Poke Run church of which her father Samuel Paul, Esq. was an honored elder.

Her pastor was the Rev Francis Laird, D.D., who baptized her in infancy and in her 21st year married her to a very worthy man, Mr. Matthew Callen, who a little more than 40 years ago passed over to the other side.

Of her father's family only two brothers survive her, viz: The venerable John Paul, of Paulton, now in his 88th year and his brother, Maj. James Paul, of Dwight, Ill, aged about 83.

Her five children survive her, viz: Mrs. Dr. McBryer, of Apollo, Pa; Miss Eliza M Callen and Mrs. Harriet C Myers, of Malcom, Ia; Mrs. Emeline S McKnight, of Indiana, Pa., and Samuel, of Denver, Col

All these, her children, had the great privilege of being with their mother in her last days, and in her dying hour.

In July 1851, Mrs. Callen, with her family, removed from Apollo to Elder's Ridge, where for about three years she boarded the students of the academy, who still remember, affectionately, her many acts of kindness.

In Oct, 1855, she moved to Scott county, Iowa, where she remained until eight or nine years ago, when she settled in Malcom, Poweshiek county, where she died.

Mrs. Callen was a woman of good common sense, great energy, generous too, almost to a fault. She looked on the bright side of every thing; she was uniformly pleasant and cheerful and her bright face and sweet smile never failed to cheer others. She had been a member of the Presbyterian Church more than 40 years. First at Apollo; then at Elder's Ridge; after this in Iowa at Bluegrass, Walcott and Malcom.

She was an humble consistent Christain; she had not only the form; but also the power of godliness. She kept watching and waiting, and when her appointed time came the angels of God came down and carried her soul up into Abraham's bosom.

"There remaineth therefore, a rest to the people of God."

"Tis sweet to rest in lively hope,
That when my change shall come,
Angels will hover round my bed,
And waft my spirit home." J.M.J.

2,3-ROBERT MILLER CALLEN/Samuel Callen Sr

(29)ROBERT MILLER CALLEN was born (41)in 1806. He married HARRIET (unknown) who was born around 1810. It appears from census records that he lived most of his life in Washington Twp. (later became Bell Twp) Westmoreland Co, removing to the town of Apollo, which was located on the north side of the Kiskiminetas River in Armstrong Co, before 1850.

(4)Robert died July 26, 1885 at 6 A.M., (41)but his headstone in Poke Run Cemetery, Apollo, Pa shows his death date as 1888. Headstones for his children read "Dau. of R.M. and H. Callen", but another stone nearby reads "Margaret, wife of R.M. Callen, died June 3, 1870, aged 61 y". Was Robert married twice, or was his wife Harriet Margaret?

2,4-HUGH CALLEN/Samuel Callen, Sr

HUGH CALLEN was born April 2,1808. (4)He married MARY CHAMBERS daughter of William Chambers Sr. and Frances "Fanny" Bovard. Mary was born in Westmoreland Co in 1805

(35A)"Hugh died intestate (meaning without a will) on March 11, 1846 and left an enormous debt for the time, of some $2,000.00 He was involved in the building of a bridge over the Kiskiminetas River at Leechburg at the time of his death at the approximate time that the bridge was to have been completed.

"The court ordered the sale of his personal property in an attempt to help satisfy the creditors. It was a traumatic time for Mary Chambers Callen, who lost her husband and two young children, all within a months' time. It is a sad fact that she had to "buy back" her own bedstead for the sum of $10.00, adding insult to injury.

"The sale of the property was largely a family affair and among those present, in addition to Chambers and Bovards, were Samuel and Matthew Callen."

It appears from the legacy left by Mary Chambers Callen in her will, filed both in Westmoreland & Armstrong Co's, that times improved greatly financially for her.

Mary died November 29, 1889. Hugh and his family are buried in Poke Run Cemetery, in Apollo, Armstrong Co, Pa.

Will of MARY CHAMBERS CALLEN

(filed in Armstrong & Westmoreland Co's, Penna)

In the name of God, Amen. I Mary Callen of Washing Township in the County of Westmoreland, and State of Pennsylvania; do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking, and making void all other wills heretofore by me at any time made.

First, I direct that My body be decently interred in the burying ground of the Presbyterian Church of Poke Run, in said County, according to the rights and ceremonies of Said Church, and that my funeral be conducted in a manner corresponding with My Estate and Situation in life:

And as to My worldly Estate which it has pleased God to intrust me with I dispose of the same as follows.

First, I direct that all my debts and funeral expences be paid as soon after my decease as possible by my executor herein after named.

Second, I give and bequeath to my granddaughter Mary C McKnight Five hundred dollars, my daughters Fanny & Sidneys' pictures, and hair flowers, Mr & Mrs McMillens pictures, also a picture of (Stand up for Jesus,) Also Fannys family Bible, My Trunk, family register, & Album.

Third, I give and bequeath unto Katie Chambers, daughters of William & Kezia Chambers, my bed & bedstead, Clock and beauro, with its contents, my Silver Teaspoons, Butter dish, Silver fruit dish, My butter Knife & spoons, two parlor Chairs, all my quilts, large looking Glass, Book stand & tray, Wash bole and pitcher.

Fourth, I give and bequeath to Hetty Chambers half day-plates, Knives & forks, and two parlor Chairs.

Fifth, I give and bequeath to Nannie Chambers, half day-plates, Knives & forks, & two parlor Chairs.

Sixth, I give and bequeath to Kezie Chambers all my Cupboard ware, Coffee Kettle, sofa, all my Carpets & Ruggs, & Gentleman Chairs, and five hundred dollars.

Seventh, I give and devise to my brother William Chambers all my real Estate remaining after the Legacies herein above devised are fully paid and after all my debts and expences of this my Estate are fully settled, and paid, and my Executor herein after named is hereby authorised to sell so much of my real Estate as may be necessary to pay said legacies & expences of any of my said Estate he may Choose, but the remainder I give & devise to him viz: my farm in Bell Township County of Westmoreland, and State of Pa. Also My house and lot in Apollo Borough County of Armstrong and state of Pennsylvania, to have and to hold both properties to him & his heirs forever on payment by him of the legacies aforesaid

And I do hereby Make and ordain my Brother William Chambers to whom I bequeathed and devised My real Estate herein Executor of this my last will, and testement.

In witness whereof I Mary Callen have to this my last will, written on two half sheets of Paper, Set my hand and seal, this seventh day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and Eighty Seven.

Mary Callen seal

The writing contained in this and the proceeding half sheet of paper, was signed and sealed by the above named Mary Callen, and by her published and declared to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who have hereunto Subscribed our names in her presence and in the presence of each other.

J Freatly William H Chambers

I Mary Callen being of Sound mind and memory do on this 23rd day of October A.D. 1889 make and publish this Codicil to my last will and testament. And I hereby rattify all and every bequest and devise heretofore made in the foregoing will and hereby declaire it to be my will that Kazia Chambers wife of William Chambers Shall have Eight hundred dollars in addition to the five hundred dollars bequeathed in this my aforesaid will.

And that Mary McKnight my granddaughter is to have just what is expressed in my will and nothing more and it is my desire that Wm Chambers my Executor in addition to the devise made in my will Shall have after payment of the above legacies any money that may be left after my decease

2,6-SAMUEL CALLEN/Samuel Callen Sr

SAMUEL CALLEN was born April 1818, in Westmoreland Co, Pa. He was the son of Samuel Callen Sr and Ann (Miller) Callen.

(18)Samuel was married first to ELIZA JANE TORRANCE who was born December 16, 1816, the daughter of Hugh and Mary (Gray) Torrance. Eliza bore Samuel 3 children before her death on April 5, 1853.

Between Eliza's death in 1853 and the Fall of 1854, Samuel had traveled to Iowa.

(30)On November 30, 1854 he married RACHEL J (TOWNSEND) SHOEMAKER who was born August 1829, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth (Hine) Townsend of Armstrong Co, Penna. Rachel was widowed April 30, 1854, just 20 days after her marriage to William Shoemaker while on the way to Blackhawk Co, Iowa, to property owned by her husband.

Callen Schoolhouse

Callen Schoolhouse
Nodaway, Missouri

The Callen School was founded and built a mile west of Nodaway in 1870; Samuel Callen, who donated the ground. The roadside schoolhouse still stands. Three generations of the Callens have attended. First was Robert Ray Callen, then his sons: George Francis Callen, Dale Callen, and Lee Callen. George Francis's sons were next: George R. and Robert L. Rickey came along too late to attend the family school. Samuel V. Callen, brother of Robert Ray Callen, had eleven children who received schooling there. Heat came from the wood stove; light from kerosene lamps. The Callen boys walked two and one-half miles to school year round. Forty to fifty students shared one room, one teacher for grades one through eight. Callen School was a community center with box suppers, programs, and "get-togethers". Some remembered teachers are: Norman Chandler, Orville D. James, Alberta Nester, Jane Brushwood, Ethel Anderson, Pauline Griffin, Eldora Hall, and Mary Patterson. Mary Elaine Reece was the last teacher. The school closed in 1954. Two of the very early students still live today — Bill Brown and Henry Bullock. George Francis Callen, owner of the photo, was born August 2, 1921, at Nodaway in the same log house in which his father was born in 1888. On February 21, 1942, he married Georgia Rose King. Francis and Georgia are parents of the above mentioned sons, two granddaughters, two grandsons. A veteran of World War II, Francis Callen now serves as mayor of Amazonia.

by Francis Callen
Amazonia, Missouri

In 1860 the family is shown in the census of the Nebraska Territory, living in or near Brownville, in the SE corner of the state on the Missouri River. Samuel's occupation is shown as Carpenter. (His pension application in 1875 listed his occupation prior to service in the Civil War as "Carpenter and Boat Builder".)

(30) Samuel served in the Civil War from the Fall of 1862 to mid 1863 in the 2nd Nebraska Calvary. He is listed in the 1890 pension list as Hospital Steward, apparently served in this capacity only after being disabled. He would have been in his forties when the War started.

Between 1860 and 1870 the family moved from Nebraska Territory to Andrew County, in the northwest corner of Missouri, north of St. Joseph. (43A) They came down river by barge. It appears that Samuel operated a saw mill in Missouri.

(43A) In 1870 Samuel donated land and built a schoolhouse at Nodaway Station. On August 16, 1870 Samuel, and two others, bought one acre of land in Sec 16, Twp 59, Range 36 in Andrew County. The cost was $35.00. It is not known if this was the school ground.

On March 30, 1872, Samuel purchased Lot 5 in Sec 19 for $175.00. On June 18, 1872 he sold part of lot 5, SEQ Sec 19, T59, R 36 to Maguire for $50. On March 5, 1874 Maguire deeded the lot back to the Callens and on December 23, 1874 they sold it to Simon P Townsend, of Armstrong Co, Pa, brother of Rachel, for $200.00. Several other transactions are on record in Andrew Co, including a mortgage on a sawmill.

(30) On October 8, 1875, Samuel filed a declaration for original pension of an invalid, as a result of damage to his leg during the Civil War. "The constant jaming and crowding of the horses while in ranks produced upon the left leg, something of the nature of valcose veins. The leg below the knee became very much swollen, until the skin gave way and it burst in the early part of the winter of 1862 & 1863 and from that time to the present it has given me much trouble and unfits me for my former vocation."

The physician's affidavit that accompanied the pension application reads "...in the summer of 1874 (I) as practicing in Andrew Co, Mo was called upon by the aforesaid Samuel Callen to treat a sore on his left leg. I found him suffering from it very much from the effects and unable to perform any labour of any kind. On examination found the bone decayed and advised him to have it amputated below the knee." There is no evidence whether this operation was ever done.

His pension application of 1875 discribes Samuel as 5' 7 1/2" tall, dark complexion, grey hair and grey eyes.

Samuel died on January 10, 1886, at age 67, cause of death was "pyemia" a term describing a severe infection or blood poisoning. Rachel died June 1, 1912, of "dropsy." (38) Both died in Nodaway, Andrew, Co, Missouri. Samuel is buried in the Nodaway cemetery, Rachel's death record says she is buried in the Baptist Cemetery.

2,11-THEOPHILUS A CALLEN/ Robert M/ Samuel Callen Sr
(29)THEOPHILUS A CALLEN was the only son of Robert M and Harriet Callen. He was born around 1846. He served in the Civil War as a member of Co. L., 155 Reg't. He was killed at the Battle of Cold Harbor, in Virginia. The following newspaper article tells us his story.

THE KISKIMINETAS SQUAD

taken from The Pittsburgh Press - Sunday, Mar 25, 1973

by GEORGE SWETNAM

"Pittsylvania has had many war heroes...But few individuals or groups could have shown more bravery than the Kiski Squad of 10 farm boys who enlisted together here in the Civil War. They marched into action within days of their induction, and only one ever returned...He was J. King Alter of near Freeport...

FROM SAME AREA

"The others were George Bratton, Theophilus Callen, Alexander Clements, Wilbur Kuhn, William Liken, Duncan McCutcheon, Alexander Richie, James Rowan and Louis Schreiner. All were from the region lying mostly between Pucketa Creek and the Kiskiminetas River, from which the group took its name.

"Things were going badly for the Union in the late summer of 1862. The boys were still in their late teens. But after talking things over, they came to Pittsburgh in a group on Aug. 22, to enlist "for three years or the duration of the war."

"...The ten youths had made up their minds to enlist in the Kier Rifles, a group being recruited here by Capt. Joseph B Sachett with financial backing from Samuel M Kier...

"Men were in demand, and there was little ceremony. They gave their names, ages, height, weight and physical coloration, and were permitted to sign the roll. A surgeon ordered them to run, jump, wrestle and turn hand springs and pronounced them fit for service.

"The Kier Rifles had been planned as a regiment, but a lot of other recruiting was under way, and it wound up as Company E of the 155th Pennsylvania. They were sent without ceremony to Camp Howe, near Oakland, where they were issued blue uniforms, "monkey caps" and oversized Army shoes, which made them feel very awkward in their first training.

"There was no long period of basic training for that regiment. Twelve days later they were on the train to Harrisburg. All along the way people were meeting the train to offer them food.

"On Sept 4, the following day, they were rushed to and through Washington in cattle cars and encamped on Arlington Heights. The following day they were sent out to bury the dead of the defeat at the second battle of Manassas, who had lain on the field for a week.

"Not much more than a week later they were off on forced marches to join the Army of the Potomac at Antietam Creek. Despite an all-day, all-night march on Sept. 15 they were just too late for the battle. But they met many wounded soldiers with makeshift bandages, searching for medical aid. Although the squad had been in service less than a month, its members found plenty of opportunity to see the hazards of war.

"They were soon to learn there were other dangers than enemy guns and bayonets.

"Hardly had they returned to Washington when they received orders to head for Falmouth, Va., to take part in the Peninsular Campaign—an effort to take Richmond from its blind side—through the coastal swamps—and camped at Falmouth.

"They had barely completed their fortification in mid-November when Rowan and Clements died of typhoid fever. Then Schreiner became ill and was the third victim of the epidemic.

"On Dec 13 they were ordered out to take part in an effort to make a pontoon crossing of the Rappahannock at Fredericksburg. Drawn up on a bluff they listened to a battle they could not see, because of smoke and fog.

"About noon they were ordered down the hill to join in the attack on a stone wall at the foot of Marye's Heights. In a ravine they saw hundreds of rough coffins, ready for use.

"Experienced soldiers might well have quailed, but the Kiski Squad kept its nerve. Kuhn, always a great joker, saw a friend in a corps of stretcher bearers.

"'Be on hand,' he called. 'I'm going to need you!'

BRATTON DIED FIRST

"His jest proved all too true. Despite their best efforts the Union forces were beaten back. Bratton was one of the first to fall in the charge, and Kuhn was mortally wounded, dying that night on the field.

"About a week later, back in camp, Richie died of fever. Six members of the squad had died in a period of five weeks. A little more than a month later McCutcheon died in the hospital to make a seventh. That made seven of the 10, within less than five months after enlistment.

"The others seemed to bear a charmed life for a while, going through battle after battle. Alter, who had been on sick leave, rejoined his unit on the march to Gettysburg. He took part in the capture of Little Round Top, still so ill that he was ordered to the hospital immediately after the battle.

"But even their string of luck was running out.

"On the night of June 2, 1864, during a period of probing attacks leading up to the battle of Cold Harbor, Callen was one of those chosed for outpost picket duty in the noman's land between the armies. He was barely 18.

"At 10 p.m. he relieved an earlier picket, identifying himself, by prior arrangement, with a low whistle. Perhaps it was intercepted by an enemy, for when his relief came at midnight, he was found shot to death, a bullet from the side having entered his head just at the ear.

"A messmate, Sgt. John M Lancaster of Brownsville, and three other volunteers crawled out and returned his body, despite considerable enemy fire in dim moonlight. Next morning his body was buried beneath a young peach tree inside the breastworks, the work being interrupted several times by enemy attacks.

"Just over two weeks later, on June 18, Liken was killed charging the breastworks at Petersburg. And four days afterward, in the same siege, Alter was wounded so severely he could never return to action. A year and three days later he was mustered out, and was the only member of the Kiski Squad to return home alive.

"The story of the Kiski Squad didn't quite end there.

"Callen and Lancaster had been very close during the nearly two years they had served together. And Callen had told the sergeant about his sister, Louisa, just a year older than himself.

"Following the funeral, Lancaster wrote to the Callen family giving an account of the tragedy, and sending a sketch of the grave made by Charles F McKenna, the picket who had found his body.

SHE ANSWERED

"Perhaps Theophilus had written his sister about Lancaster, too, for it was she who answered:

Point Home, near Apollo
June 12, 1864.

John M. Lancaster,
Dear Friend:

We received your letter to father a few days ago, informing us of the death of our only brother. It was a terrible shock to us all...

Your kind letter gave us much comfort and consolation in our deep grief...I hope your lives may be spared, and you and your comrades be permitted to return to your homes...

"The letter must have meant a great deal to Lancaster. Soon after being mustered out of service a year later, he hurried to the Callen home. There he received a shock, Louisa had died a few weeks earlier - from grief, they said - just 20 years of age.

"Having given his heart, John Lancaster was not one to take it back. He went to Virginia with Callen's father in 1866, to retrieve the youth's coffin and return it here for burial beside Louisa. You may see their stone still in the cemetery in Poke Run churchyard.

"It was many years before Lancaster married. And half a century after the war's end he still treasured Louisa's letter, and the sketch by McKenna, which her father had entrusted to his keeping."

2,13-ELIZA JANE CALLEN/ Hugh/ Samuel Callen, Sr (35A)ELIZA JANE CALLEN was the daughter of Hugh and Mary (Chambers) Callen. She was born on March 31, 1835, probably in Westmoreland Co, Pa. On March 13, 1862 she married JAMES A MCKNIGHT. Eliza died on January 25, 1866 and James McKnight married Eliza's cousin Emeline S Callen.

2,14-HUGH TORRENCE CALLEN/ Samuel/ Samuel Callen, Sr
(29)HUGH TORRENCE CALLEN (called "Hugh" and "Torrence") was the son of Samuel and Eliza Jane Torrence. (43A)He was born October 14, 1842 near Cookstown, Westmoreland Co, Pa. No direct family information exists about him. The facts of his life are from census records, military affidavits and legal documents signed during his lifetime.

(43A)His family moved to the Pittsburgh area in late 1850 and lived there until Hugh's mother's death in 1853. His father broke up housekeeping and went west to Davenport, Iowa where he remarried in November of 1854.

By 1860, the family had moved to the Nebraska territory by way of Kansas.

(30)At age 18 Hugh enlisted in Company C of the 1st Nebraska Cavalry on June 15, 1861 and served in Louisiana and Arkansas. He was a prisoner of war for a time during the Civil War. "June to Sept 1864 absent in Nebraska confinement at Little Rock, Ark." (42)"But it was not until the men were paroled in St Louis that their true state was learned. They had marched 300 miles barefoot, over gravel and stones. They were completely destitute, having been robbed by the Rebels of everything they possessed. They were paroled in September; they would receive no pay until November. An urgent appeal was put out in Nebraska: for dishes, stationery, needles, and thread - anything and everything which would help them to rehabilitate themselves. Cash in the amount of $142.50 was collected in Brownville and sent to the men. A day of fasting was observed by the town with all business houses closed and religious services held at the Presbyterian Church."

(30)He was discharged at Omaha, Nebraska in November of 1864. After his discharge Hugh returned to his father's home in Brownville, Nebraska "and for some time afterward superintended the running of [his father's] steam saw mill" because his father was "unable to perform labour one half of the time".

(43A)In March of 1867 he represented his mother, as "next friend" in a land suit in Auburn, Nebraska (county seat of Nemaha Co, in which Brownville is located). By September of 1867 the family had relocated about 60 miles south, this time on the east bank of the Missouri River, in Andrew County, at a place called "Nodaway Slough."

(39)Hugh married CORDILIA WARD in Andrew County, Missouri on September 9, 1867. Cordilia died at Rulo, Nebraska in November 1868. There were no children.

(43A)During the five years between 1865 and 1870 Hugh hauled freight from the eastern Nebraska border to Denver, Colorado. In the 1870 census for Andrew Co, Mo., his occupation is listed as Engineer.

In early 1875, Hugh signed an affidavit at Lemars, Iowa, relating to his father's pension application. There is no information as to why he was in western Iowa and it is not listed in the military papers as a place of residence subsequent to his discharge.

(43A)By 1875 or 1876 both Hugh and his brother, Samuel M Callen, left western Missouri and moved south eastward. The record is not clear as to the exact state of residence. Hugh was injured in the explosion of a steam saw mill in Tennessee in 1875 (one record says 1876; however, Tennessee is not listed as a place of residence after his military service). His injury was apparently severe, cracking his skull in two places, so that years afterward there was a separation of about a match width between the bone.

In March 1883 he was living on the western Louisiana border, near Texarkana. He signed a release at Shreveport, acknowledging receipt of an inheritance from his mother's estate.

By 1886 or 1887 Hugh was living in Gifford, Arkansas, Hot Springs County, on the eastern side of the state.

On February 16, 1889, at age 46, Hugh married his second wife the widow MALINDA JANE LANDRETH OSBORN. There were no children of this second marriage.

In 1892, at age 50, Hugh applied for a military pension, citing his inability to perform his present occupation of farming due to the sawmill injury and damage to his health from "Swamp fever" contracted during his military service.

In 1906 Hugh applied for an increase in his pension, which was granted. He received $40 per month at the time of his death.

(43A)Hugh apparently remained in Gifford until his death, which occurred about April 1, 1919. He was 76 years old. No pictures exist of Hugh Torrence Callen, but an affidavit in the military papers describe him at the time of his enlistment at 5'10" tall, light complexion, light hair and blue eyes.

2,15-SAMUEL MILLER CALLEN/ Samuel/ Samuel Callen, Sr
SAMUEL MILLER CALLEN was the second son of Samuel & Eliza Jane (Torrence) Callen, and was born April 15, 1845 in Westmoreland Co, Pa. Samuel, also called Miller, was only 8 years old when his mother died. His father moved the family to Davenport, Iowa shortly afterward, and in November of 1854 his father married again.

(43A)On November 28, 1861, at age 16, Samuel M joined the Civil War and served in the 2nd Kansas Cavalry until January 13, 1865.

(39)On June 20, 1869 Samuel M married SARAH ELLEN BAKER who was born in Arkansas around 1850, she was the daughter of Sarah Baker, a widow in Andrew County, Mo. Sarah (Baker) Callen died October 28, 1876, in Wayne Co, Mo, then the mother of 3 children.

(29)The 1870 Andrew Co, Mo. census show Samuel M Callen living with his father and step-mother, his occupation is listed as sawyer.

(43A)In May 1881 in Paducah Kentucky, Samuel M married MARY WYATT, who was living in north-western Tennessee.

In the 1890 Special Census of Civil War Veterans, Samuel M is listed in Dyer Co, Tennessee, Post Office Trimble. He continued to live in Tennessee until at least the early 1890's. In 1892 he sold his sawmill and lived in Paducah, Kentucky until his death.

In the 1900 Kentucky Federal Census the family is listed in Paducah, McCracken Co, Kentucky. Samuel's occupation is shown as machinist. Samuel lived at 1946 Bridge Street.

The 1910 Kentucky Federal census shows Samuel M in McCracken Co, occupation saw filer.

(43A-43D) "Following his wife's death Samuel lived with his son Elmer. His granddaughter Mae remembers Samuel in his last years. He had a tattoo of a round saw on one thumb. He bought the granddaughters a set of encyclopedias from a traveling salesman which he paid for out of his pension check. A neighbor boy, J.C. Wilkes, recalls that once a week Samuel would walk from his home to the grocery, about a mile, buy a bag of candy and give it to the neighborhood children. He also recalls that Samuel sat on the porch and chewed tobacco and caused some peril to the children who skated on the walk that went around the house."

(43A) Mary (Wyatt) Callen died on April 3, 1924, Samuel Miller Callen died in February 1930 in Paducah, Kentucky. They are both buried in the Wyatt Cemetery.

2,23-EDWARD D CALLEN/ Samuel M/ Samuel/ Samuel Callen Sr
(43A)"EDWARD DICKEY CALLEN was born November 29, 1874, in Wayne Co, Mo., in the village of Crossroads, he was the son of Samuel Miller Callen and Sarah Ellen (Baker) Callen. His mother died when Edward was only 23 months old. By 1880 he had been taken or sent back to Pennsylvania.

"The 1880 census shows Edward living with his great uncle and great aunt John M and Margaret (Callen) Dickey, in Westmoreland Co, Pa. He is listed in John Dickey's will in 1886 as a member of the household.

"His early education was in a one-room school house. In his later years he spoke of going to school early to light the fire and how bitterly cold the Pennsylvania winters were. He completed his education in Pennsylvania and worked for the Homestead Steel Mill. At age 17 he went to Paducah, Kentucky and rejoined his father and his step-mother, Mary (Wyatt) Callen. In the 1900 census Edward is listed as a member of his father's household and his occupation is shown as day laborer.

"His father sold him a house and lot in Paducah, Kentucky prior to his marriage, which he sold when he "went on the river".

the GEO. POPE

"Edward Dickey Callen married in 1903 and during the period 1904 to around 1910 he worked on a small steam boat called the 'Geo. Pope' and barged logs down the White River in eastern Arkansas. His wife, Lillie, cooked for the boat's crew for a time. He was a licensed Marine Engineer and renewed his license until he was 70 years old, at which time his license became permanent.

"By 1910 Edward was living in Vicksburg, Mississippi, with his wife LILLIE ALICE COLE and two sons. His occupation was Steam Engineer, employed by a gravel company. During his employment with the gravel company he perfected methods for dredging and recovering sand by barge, several of which processes were subsequently patented. He devised a bucket mechanism that was later perfected by a road builder and used in ditch digging. Later in his career he was employed by Dutton's Foundry as a pattern maker and specialized in sand cast molds. During the depression and after he had retired he taught for the Army Corp of Engineers (CCC) training young men to operate heavy equipment in the National Military Park in Vicksburg.

"He had a small business from his home sharpening saws. He kept bees, engaged in woodworking, and continued to pursue his inventions, including development of a fire bomb during WWII. It was sent to Washington, but returned by the government, saying it was too complicated for mass production.

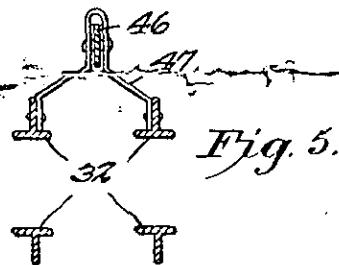

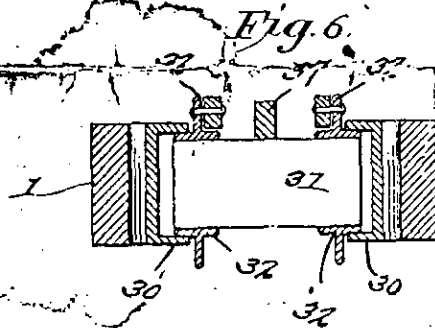

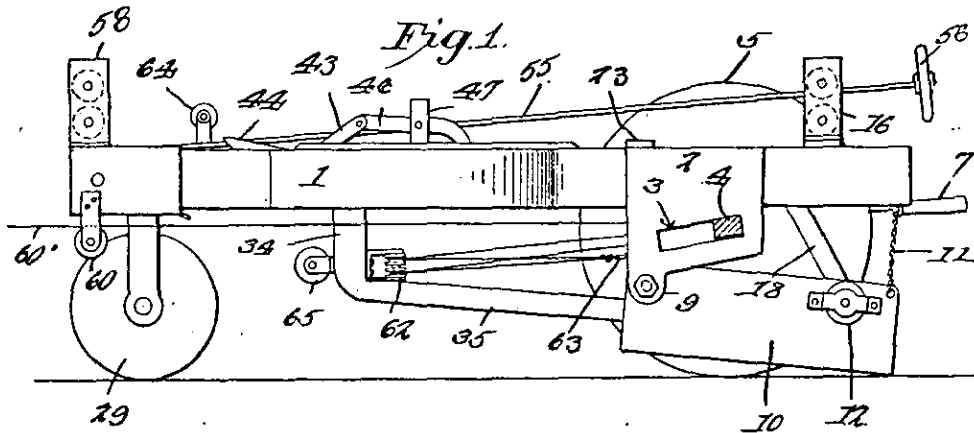

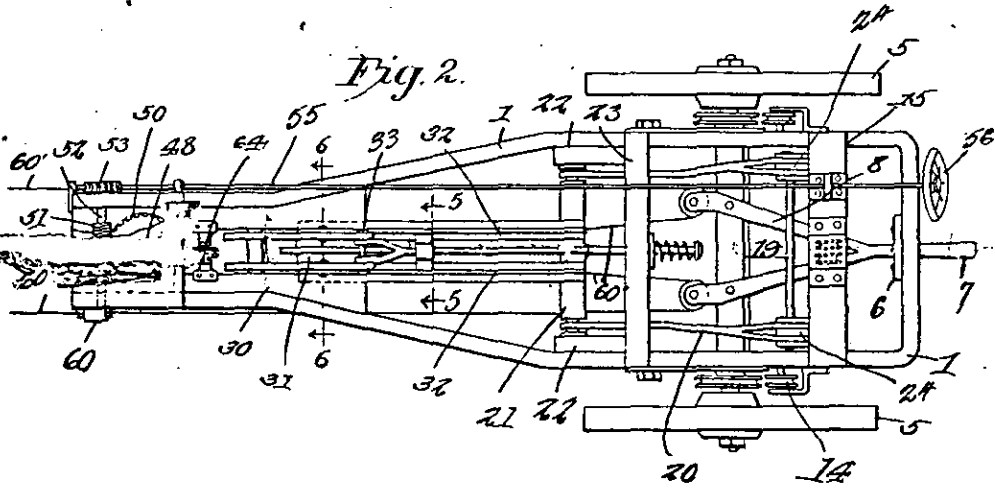

"Throughout his life, he maintained a curiosity about how things work and is well remembered by his family for the many hours spent in his basement workshop. Except for meals he spent most of every day in his shop which was right beneath the kitchen. He was almost totally deaf by then and couldn't hear anyone calling from upstairs. When Lillie wanted him for meals she would bang on the kitchen floor with a broom handle.

"Several pieces of his furniture and at least one of the working models he submitted with his patent applications survive.

2,24-WILLIAM E CALLEN/ Samuel M/ Samuel/ Samuel Callen Sr

(43A)WILLIAM ELMER CALLEN was born February 27, 1884 in Paducah, McCracken Co, Kentucky, the son of Samuel Miller Callen and 2nd wife Mary (Wyatt) Callen. On June 20, 1917 in Paducah, McCracken Co, Ky, he married EVA STAR MAGDALENE DICKEY who was the daughter of John Andrew and Mamye Magdalene (Powley) Dickey.

His daughter Mae writes (43D)"Dad was a very shy, kind, quiet and generous man--sometimes to a fault. He worked all of his life as a first class carpenter and cabinet maker. For many years he worked for J.W. Lockwood and Son Contracting Co., and did work in and on major Paducah business establishments and homes, including Vice President Alben Barkley's Paducah home.

"He built our home on the Husbands Road in 1923. It was a two story four bedroom brick house on four acres. He did all of the work except the brick work. In his spare time he divided the home on Bridge Street into two parts and moved them back on the lot to make two small houses. He then added a gasoline station on the space where the house had been. He later built three very small (three room) houses on the additional space. All of these buildings were in the 1937 flood and had to be repaired after the flood.

"Additionally, the 1937 flood water reached seven foot in our home on the Husbands Road. We went to bed one night in January with no water in the yard and the next morning we could not get out in knee boots and in about three or four hours the water was in our home. The previous night we had purchased a lot of food, oil, etc which Mother had insisted on as she seemed to know it was the thing to do. Evelyn and I left from an upstairs window and spent six weeks with friends out of the flood area. Mother, Dad and Margaret remained upstairs throughout the flood. Dad made a boat from parts of built-in furniture and benches and was able to check on other homes nearby. Another couple moved in with them, sharing food, etc. Most of our downstairs furniture was destroyed, but I guess we were better off than most families.

"In later years Dad worked for the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) doing carpentry work at the Kentucky State Dam at Gilbertsville, Ky., about 28 miles from Paducah.

"Dad retired at, I believe, age 65. He then built and sold two houses next to our home on the Husbands Road. He said that he had been too active all of his life to abruptly quit working. He would work on the houses in the mornings and rest in the afternoon. He belonged to the Carpenters Union most of his life.

"In his young years he enjoyed ice skating and playing football (Checkers & Whisks teams). He had one of the earlier cars--at least back as far as 1917 when he was married.

"All of his life he was interested in football, baseball, softball and basketball. Sometimes he would watch one game on TV and have one on radio at the same time. Not having any male children we girls and/or Mother were often taken to ball games. When I was 14 years old (1932) Dad and Mother got out the encyclopedia and determined dimensions and made a tennis court next to our home. We and our friends and relatives really enjoyed having the court."

(43A)William died April 10, 1968, and Eva died March 10, 1950, both are buried in the Mt Kenyon Cemetery in Paducah, Ky.

2,30-EDWARD M CALLEN/ Edward D/ Samuel M/ Samuel/ Samuel Callen Sr
(43A)EDWARD MILLER CALLEN was born April 18, 1904, in Augusta, Woodruff Co, Arkansas. He was the son of Edward Dickey and Lillie (Cole) Callen.

(43E)"He spent many summers near Mt. Vernon and New Harmony Ind.
with his Mother's two brothers Dick (Richard) Cole and Will Cole.
They lived near each other and were farmers.

"Edward made the first trip by train when he was about 6 years old.
They came seven miles by horse & buggy to pick him up. Once the arrival time was incorrect. He walked the seven miles alone and at night. He went up there almost every summer until he was 15 or 16.
There were seven cousins, counting Edward. They formed a life long friendship and were always a joy for each other...

"His grandmother Naomi Green Cole lived with Uncle Will sometimes, but mostly with Uncle Dick...Edward spoke of helping her with the washing, carrying water & baskets of clothes. She did most of the mending for the family. The children in those days, at least there, slept on mattresses or 'ticks' filled with dried corn husks. When the farm chores were less demanding she would get Edward, Charlie, & Oscar to bring in the corn husk and refill the ticks. In winter there were beds, but in summer the boys slept on the porch that went around 3 sides of the house. After the noon meal all the men & boys took a nap on the porch, 'To let the horses rest'!

"Edward talked of traveling with his Mother on the Packet Boats, where to or when I don't know. The family moved to Vicksburg, from Greenville, Miss when he was about 15. He came down river by himself and found the house at 914 DeWitt. He never said, but probably rented it to begin with.

"In those years there were men who made their living by harvesting wheat. They owned the necessary equipment for this operation. Wheat harvest usually started in Texas, moving north and east as needed.
The summer he was seventeen [Edward] went, by train, to Texas and hired on a harvesting crew, going north and east to Hutchinson, Kansas. There he took typhoid fever and had to go home.

"He told of going into a men's clothing store in Hutchinson in his only pair of overalls and a ragged shirt. He was so lanky at that time and I expect his hair was rather unruly, being so thick. He always loved good cloths. As he picked out a good suit and other things the clerk seemed nervous. When Edward took a large roll of bills from his pocket the clerk nearly fainted. This is the way he told me about it.

"He had only three years of high school, but always studied. He took courses with the International Correspondance Institution as a young man, in Steam Engineering. Later he went to night classes at the University of Colorado taking drafting and Steam Engineering.

"When he was eighteen he went to work for the City Light and Power Company as turbine operator in Vicksburg, Miss. He worked there until he went to Colorado...[the plant] wasn't too far from 914 DeWitt St. He said he ran all the way home when that house burned.

"He went to Denver, Colorado in 1923-4. He lived there less than a year. He had a job with The Sterns-Rogers Construction Co...then he was hired by what is now the Public Service Co of Colo, going to work at Valmont Plant as turbin operator in Nov 1924.

(43A) On September 27, 1926 he married BEULAH FLORENCE CAMPBELL, who was born Oct 2, 1905. She is the daughter of John Franklin and Maude (Buckhorn) Campbell..

(43E)"In 1952 he was transfered to the Denver office as Superintendant of Outside Steam Plants. The plants were...in Boulder, Alamas, Stereling, [and] Grand Junction, all in Colorado; and Cheyene, Wyo. He worked for 'the company' from Nov 1924 to May 1st, 1966. Fourty two years. I think he loved every minute of it.

"He was a very quite, peaceful man. Faithful and true in all things.

"He was a member of The Boulder Fish & Game Club. Mostly they stocked high mountain lakes with rainbow trout, within 20 or 30 miles of Boulder. They carried about fifty pounds of fish and water in five gallon square tin containers in their back packs. It was necessary to stop at streams along the way to change the water so there would be enough oxygen for the fish. They drove as far as they could then walked several miles to the lakes.

"Edward preferred fishing in the high mountain lakes. He often drove 40 or 50 miles then hiked 6 to 10 miles to favorite lakes at altitudes of 8,000 to 10,000 feet. There was a group of 8 to 10 men who did this, usually only 2 or 3 at a time. He never went alone...

"As a family we did a lot of camping and back packing. Often sleeping in the open. Virginia was 5 and Suzanne 8 on our first back packing trip. They had their own little soft back packs for extra clothing, staying out two or three nights.

Edward went over near Grand Junction Colorado many years for deer hunting, taking his family to visit with his wife's childhood friends."

Edward Miller Callen died June 16, 1973 and is buried in Littleton, Jefferson Co, Colorado.

(43A)"KENNETH ELMER CALLEN was born April 12, 1917 in Greenville, Mississippi. His family moved to Vicksburg when he was 3 years old and he grew up in a house that was built on one of the sites on which the Battle of Vicksburg had been fought. The family retains several items recovered in the area of the home. including an ornate saber. Kenneth attained the rank of Eagle Scout and was a member of the Sea Scouts. In high school he participated in sports and earned a letter in track.

On September 11, 1937 he married MARY EDNA THOMAS who was born in Hissop, Alabama on March 14, 1914, the daughter of Lawrence O and Cora B (Hughes) Thomas.

"Kenneth apprenticed as a welder and subsequently worked on dam construction projects in Mississippi until shortly before the start of WWII. From 1941 to 1945 he was employed by a shipyard near Mobile, Alabama, which constructed destroyers, minesweepers and cargo ships.

"In 1951 the family relocated to Lake Jackson, Texas, near Houston. He retired in 1975 from a position as maintenance supervisor with a major chemical company. He and his wife reside in Angleton, Texas. They spend time between their home and a travel trailer which is parked on a private reservoir. They enjoy traveling, fishing and share an interest in wildlife. Kenneth builds multi-story wood and aluminum Martin houses for friends in the area and has developed a process of using water pressure to lower and raise the heavy houses.

2,53-DOROTHY B CALLEN/ Kenneth E/ Edward D/ Samuel M/ Samuel/ Samuel Callen Sr

(43A)DOROTHY BELLE CALLEN was born October 23, 1942 the daughter of Kenneth E and Mary Edna (Thomas) Callen. "I was born in Mobile Alabama, where my father worked during the War as a welder. I vaguely recall seeing a ship launched, although my Mother tells me that we saw many.

My first real memory is of living in Shreveport, La. We moved to Vicksburg, Ms when I was about five. I started school and briefly attended a small school in Alabama.

"We moved from Vicksburg to Russellville, Ala where Dad was the mechanic at a rock quarry. We moved to Texas when I was eight, I was a little disappointed there weren't cowboys and Indians everywhere. There were also no homes to be had. We spent the summer in a boarding house waiting for a house to buy. Almost every day that summer my Mother and I went to the beach. We did get a house before Fall and my childhood in Lake Jackson, Texas until in Shreveport, La., in 1960.

JOHN & DOROTHY LAIRD
I spent the rest of my childhood in Lake Jackson, Texas until I went away to college in Shreveport, La., in 1960.

In the years between 1951 and 1960, especially the last few years, my life and those of my friends revolved almost entirely around the beach. We spent every moment possible at the beach, if we could get a way out there, or water skiing if we could get one of the dads to take us.

In 1961 I transferred to the University of Houston and almost didn't get there in time. The hurricane "Carla" struck the gulf coast just a few days before I was supposed to leave for school. We took a few clothes and the dog and went inland. We stayed away a couple of days and got home just as the sun was coming up. There was water everywhere. We stopped just on the edge of town on a levee road and walked in. About three blocks from the house the water was waist deep, but when we got home there was no water inside and only a little damage to the roof and some windows. I was one day late getting to school.

I left school in 1963 without graduating and lived and worked in Houston until I married in 1968, to JOHN R HINMAN from Plains, Kansas. He was a commercial pilot and we lived in western Kansas where his family had a small aircraft business. We divorced in 1971 and I moved to Kansas City, Mo. in 1973.

I worked for a financier and a construction company for a time and went back to school to get a BS degree and later a MBA from Rockhurst College. In 1977 I began work at a local utility company.

Since 1984 I've been the supervisor of budgets for the company's power generating stations. I married again in 1986 to JOHN ROBERT LAIRD, a native Kansas Citian who is an officer of Ozark Kenworth. We live outside of Liberty, Mo., a community about 15 miles northeast of Kansas City. I took up horseback riding after moving to Kansas City and gave that up after several unfortunate falls and the rising cost of maintaining a horse. Bought a house and a duplex in Kansas City in 1978 which I rented out for several years. I sold both shortly before remarrying.

I play tennis and take golf lessons. I was active in Republican politics at the local and state level and was a Committeewoman when I lived in Kansas City, but do not participate in politics now."

Dorothy is also interested in family research and is a co-author and co-researcher of this book.

LINE OF WILLIAM CALLEN SR.

3,1-WILLIAM CALLEN SR. was born (55F) May 12, 1735??(not verified), probably in the colonies in Lancaster Co, Pennsylvania. William was possibly a son of John Callen a Scotch-Irish immigrant who settled near Hogestown in 1737 which was at that time part of Pennsborough Twp, Lancaster Co, Pennsylvania (see pg 8 & 9).

1762 - Around 1762 (45) William married ELIZABETH TAYLOR of Virginia, she was the daughter of Henry and Susan Taylor.

1768 - (2) William Callans is listed as a tax payer in East Pennsborough Township, Cumberland Co, Pa. He was taxed for 1 horse, 1 cow, and 100 acres of land - having 30 acres of that land cleared. (Cumberland Co tax list pg 3 - also on page 4 is listed Jonathan & David Hoges and John & William Orr, which are two family names that appear as living near the immigrant John Callen near Hogestown, Pa.)

1769 - The 1769 tax record for West Pennsborough Twp, Cumberland Co shows a William Camelin taxed for 1 horse, 1 cow, with 100 acres of land and 35 acres cleared. We feel that the name was misspelled, it is not unreasonable to think that William cleared an additional 5 acres in this one year period.

(45) "There is some indication that William and Patrick were brothers ... and that William went down the Shenandoah Valley of Va. He first settled in Augusta Co, Va next to Thos. Stuart in 1769. The Stuart family and the Kirkpatrick family of Cumberland Co, Pa ended up in Mecklenburg Co, N.C. and intermarried with the Callens."

1769 - November 6th William Calin was a teste (witness??) to a land transaction on Christian's Creek in Augusta Co Va. The transaction was between William and Margaret Jameson & John Jameson (Chronicles of the Scotch-Irish Settlement in Virginia)

1769 - November 8th William Callen was surveyed 280 acres, adjoining Thomas Stuart, Henry Dawson, and James Hurs (or Heers). (Abstracts of Surveys (Rockingham Co, Va) 1761-1691)

1769-1770 - (43A) Settlements were being renewed. In Bedford County, Pa (which became Westmoreland County in 1773) land could also be acquired from Virginia. "Tomahawk rights" were recognized, so that squatters were given title, defacto. Both colonies allowed a pre-emption right by improvement. A majority of settlers in the forks of the Yough River retained their lands under Virginia jurisdiction. After 1769, with the opening of the land office, rights were granted by the Penns. (We are unsure at this time - but this may explain why William is shown both in Pennsylvania and in Virginia at the same times.)

1772 - Augusta Co. Va court records show a Patent was issued November 17, 1772 to William Callen and wife Elizabeth - corner Henry Dawson; Teste: John Cunningham, Patrick Buchanan

1777-1778 - (5)William was a Lieutenant in the 2nd Battalion, 3rd Company, under the command of Col. John Perry of the Westmoreland Co. Pa. militia, Barr's Detachment. On March 11, 1778 his unit was ordered to Indian Country on expedition, by Brig. Gen. Edward Hand, Commanded by Col. Alexander Barr - (Pa Archives Series 6, Vol 2, pg 303-309). (55A)Pay for his service began Feb 10, 1778 and ended on March 8, 1778 - 27 days pay - $27.00 per month. Amount paid 18 lbs, 4 shillings & 6 pence, plus 40 miles subsistence pay each day.

1780 - William Callen held land adjacent to the McIllduff family in Franklin Twp, Westmoreland Co, Pa. ("History of Westmoreland Co")

1783 - William Callan is taxed in Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland Co, Pa. for 200 acres of land (possibly Bounty Land for his military service) 3 horses, 3 cattle, 6 sheep (Pa Archives Series 3, Vol 22, pg 403)

1785 - William Callen is named as an administrator for the estate of Joseph Irwin in Westmoreland Co, Pa.

1786 - William Callen is taxed in Franklin Township, Westmoreland Co, Pa (Pa Archives Series __, Vol __, pg __)

1787 - (45)"Wm Callen Sr....purchased land in 1787 in that part of Mecklenburg Co, [North Carolina] that became Cabarrus Co. N.C. in 1792." (57)The two tracts of land were joined together and were bought from Peter Burns. The land was located "on the east side of Coddle Creek". The first of these two tracts was sold to his son William Jr in 1798. (see Appendix B, pg 359 & 361)

1790 - The first U.S. census in 1790 shows William Calland listed in the Salisbury District in Mecklenburg Co, North Carolina (pg 162 - 1st column) He is listed with 3 males 16 years and upwards; 1 female; 2 slaves. (Same page column 2 lists Valentine Kirkpatrick - see 3,5)

1800 - The 1800 U.S. census for Cabarrus, North Carolina shows William Callon Senr. with 1 male over 45 years of age; 1 female over 45; and 3 slaves.

1810 - The census shows a Wm. Callens in Cabarrus Co (pg 365); and also a Wm. Callen in Mecklenburg Co. (pg 51). It is unclear which one is William Sr, and William Jr, or if one is Wm III:

Wm. Callens in Cabarrus Co is shown with

3 males under 10 years of age; 1 male over 45 years;
1 female under 10; 1 female 26 to 45 years

3 males under 10; 1 male 10 to 16 yrs; 1 male 26 to 45 yrs;
2 female under 10; 1 female 10-16 yrs; 1 female 26-45 yrs.

(49)William died July 19, 1815???(not verified) in North Carolina. Elizabeth died after 1810 and is buried in Cabarrus, N.C.

LINE OF WILLIAM CALLEN SR - 2ND GENERATION

3,2-JOHN CALLEN/ William Callen Sr

(55F)JOHN CALLEN, Sr was born (55H)around 1765, he is believed to be the son of William Callen Sr and Elizabeth (Taylor) Callen. Around 1794 John married (45)NANCY "AGNES" KERR (or KARR) who was born ca 1773.

(56)(see Appendix C, pg 370)In 1795 John Callen bought land at an auction, the land was located "on the waters of Goose Creek" in Mecklenburg Co, N.C. This land had apparently been seized by Act of Assembly for non-payment of "publick taxes", and was auctioned off to the highest bidder. The acreage and cost on the deed are unreadable.

In 1798 John Callen bought land from John Mitchel paying 84 Pounds Ten Shillings, the land was located in the Rocky River area of Cabarrus Co, N.C. In 1809 John Callen sold this land (60 acres) to James Dickson for $495.00.

John Callen purchased another parcel of land on Goose Creek in 1810. This parcel was 200 acres "more or less", the purchase price was $390.00.

In 1822 John Callen bought two more tracts of land on Goose Creek, he paid ten dollars per 100 acres; one parcel contained 20 acres, the second parcel contained 90 acres.

John died (50D)June 22, 1825 (50A)in Mecklenburg, North Carolina; Agnes died January 19, 1846 aged 72 years 10 mo's and is buried in Little Sandy Ridge Presbyterian Church Cemetery, in Lowndes Co., Alabama.

will of JOHN CALLEN

(filed Mecklenburg Co, North Carolina)

In the name of God Amen

I JOHN CALLANS of the State of N Carolina and County of Mecklenburg being under very Declining circumstance of health and remembering that it is appointed to all men to die and at the same time being of a sound mind and memory Do publish this my last will and Testament in manner and form as follows - viz -

Imprimis: I commit my body to the dust to be buried in a decent manner, at the discretion of my Executors: and my Soul to God who gave it hoping and confiding in the mercy of God according to the provisions and tenor of that new and well ordered covenant

And my dying council to my Dearly beloved wife and my children Severally, viz: that they all be found walking in the way of Gods commandments that through riches of infinite mercy we may all be prepared to meet in a better world,

Item - As touching the worldly substance which God in his good providence hath bestowed upon me I Dispose of as follows - viz -

Imprimis: I devise that all my just debts be paid either out of the crop now in the ground: and should there by any failure in that out of the property that my Exrs may judge can be best spared

Item: The whole remaining property I commit and hand over to my Exrs. in trust to be kept together for the comfort and maintainance of my well beloved wife and children, and for the education of my children. I devise that out of this common property all my single children be apportioned off when they shall come of age or marry, and made equal to those that are already married and apportioned off.

Item: I devise to my well beloved wife Agness her full legal share of my landed property during her natural life: and of my perishable property three times as much as will fall to the equal apportionment of any child and forever at her disposal

Item: I devise that all the balance of property after the preceeding apportionments and my wife's legal share of land after her decease be the common and equal property of all my children

Item: I put it into the powers and discretion of my Exrs from time to time to sell any property, that in their judgment the interest of the estate may require.

Finally, I do hereby constitute and appoint my dearly beloved wife Agness and my true and faithful friend Robert Allen the Exrs of this my last will & Testament, Published this 16th [of June] A.D. 1825

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal

3,4-WILLIAM CALLEN JR/ William Callen Sr

(45)WILLIAM CALLEN JR was born around 1772. (55A)He married SARAH ALEXANDER on May 5, 1798 in Cabarrus Co, North Carolina, she was born around 1770.

(57)(see Appendix B, pg 361)In 1798 William Jr bought land from his father "on the East Side of Coddle Creek" in Cabarrus Co, N.C. He paid 90 Pounds for the one hundred acres of land.

In 1801 William Callons bought an additional 90 acres of land "on Coddle Creek" for 50 Shillings per hundred acres. This land adjoined the land of William Callons Senr.

In 1815 William Callens/Callans bought 5 and 1/4 acres on Coddle Creek for 50 Shillings per hundred acres. And again in 1819 William Callan's/Callens bought a tract of land on Coddle Creek that adjoined his own property. This land tract cost 100 Shillings per hundred acres, total of acreage not shown on the deed.

William Jr died before 1829, for in 1829 his son (45)"James A [Callens] sold his land to [John] Phifer (see Appendix D, pg 379) and Sarah joined him in the deed, since part of the tract was dower land she got from Wm II deceased." (55H)Sarah died on January 21, 1840 in Cherokee, Alabama, she is buried in the Callan Cemetery.

3,5-THOMAS CALLEN/ William Callen Sr

(60C-60E)THOMAS CALLEN was born March 20, 1762. There is conflicting family tradition as to where Thomas was born. One descendant said he was born in Dublin, Ireland - another descendant said he was born onboard ship crossing the ocean.

But there is also some indication that Thomas might have been the son of William Callen Sr and was born in the colonies. Family tradition from this line says that Thomas lived in North Carolina when he was young. The tradition further states that he had three brothers, John, James, and William, which are the names of William Sr's three known sons.

(57)In 1801 Thomas Callons bought 30 acres of land in Cabarrus Co, N.C. on the North East Side of Mulberry Branch. (Appendix D, pg 377)

There is a land deed between William Callons and Thomas Callons dated 1803, in Cabarrus Co, N.C. William sold Thomas 100 acres of land "on the East Side of Coddle Creek". (Appendix B, pg 363) (60G-60C)On January 10, 1816 (or March 22, 1816) Thomas married JANE C WEST. Jane was born December 22, 1789 in North Carolina.

Thomas died January 4, 1848 and Jane died October 5, 1851; they are buried in Oak Hill, Carroll Co, Arkansas. Further information on this family line can be found in "Callen Family History" by Bob Graham - 1981.

LINE OF WILLIAM CALLEN SR - 3RD GENERATION

3,6-ELIZABETH CALLEN/ John/ William Callen Sr

(50A)ELIZABETH CALLEN was born around 1795/1796 in North Carolina, it is generally believed that she is the daughter of John and Agnes (Kerr) Callen, since census records show that John had a daughter born around the same time, and they lived in Mecklenburg Co, N.C. where Elizabeth was married.

(45)Around 1815 she married FRANCIS KIRKPATRICK in Mecklenburg, N.C. (48)(marriage date was omitted on original marriage bond, now on file in N.C. Department of Archives & History, Raleigh). Francis was born ca 1794 in N.C. the son of (46)Valentine and (50A)Martha (McMurray) Kirkpatrick. (46)"Several Kirkpatrick men and wives, including Francis and Laird, were charter members of Sandy Ridge Presbyterian Church in [1833], and other Callen families associated with the church at a later date" (50A)including James, John, and William.

(50A)Elizabeth died ca 1860-1867 in Butler or Lowndes Co, Alabama. After her death, Francis married Martha Gresham on May 16, 1867 in Lowndes Co. (50I)Martha was approximately 40 years younger than Francis, there were no children by this second marriage. Francis died ca 1871 in Butler Co, Alabama.

ELIZABETH (FOSTER) CALLEN

ROSS CALLEN

Two letters have been preserved and handed down this family line. Carolyn Glass Warren now shares them with the family. (The first letter has been edited here to show only the history and the Callen information contained.)

(50D)"Elberton, Ga Feby. the 28th 1912
Mr. Sturgeon Foster Glass

My dear cousin:

I am going to try to write you what I can of the history of our people; that is the Foster side of them and perhaps if I get a good start may not stop there.

Your Great, Great, Great Grandfather and his wife were married in Dublin, Ireland...Robert Foster and Margaret Duffey was married...and to them was born two children, Henry and I think Elizabeth, in the old country. On account of their faith, they being Protestants and great strife having arisen in Ireland about that time between the Roman Catholics they became uneasy about their welfare and came across the water, landing at what port I am not aware, but finally they stopped in McLinburge, N.C...The Irish folks settled near the Stilwells after they came over. They had born to them William J., Ann Farr, and Penelope, Robert died at about 15 or 16 years of age. ROSS CALLENS married ELIZABETH, I don't know the date, but in 1832 my father left N.C. and came to Ga. In 1834 the Stilwell family, and the Foster family and Ross Callen followed, the Stilwells settled in Henry and the Fosters and Callens in Butts County, the later families on Towaligge River...

Uncle Ross and family went to Alabama when I was quite small, but I remember them and John Callen, too, and there was a family of Birds that was connected with them in some way. They stayed here a long time after Uncle went out there.

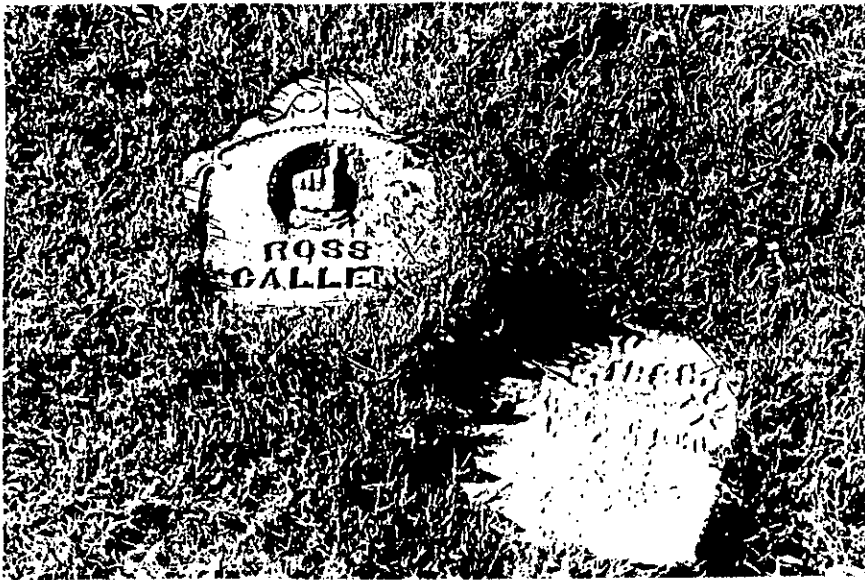

Your cousin, John F Stilwell"

(50D)"Dallas, Texas Nov. 28, 1948
Mrs. Ray Etter Glass,
Greenville

Dear Ray:

Some weeks ago when I was trying out my newly acquired vision, I visited a very old and badly neglected cemetery--McWright!--Just a flower here and there to place upon the sleeping places of kindred, friends--and to the first sweetheart of mine.

And there was another grave--Its location was vague, but its memory had been indelibly written on my childish mind--And I found that long neglected grave with its broken stone--of Ross Callen, born 1800--Died 1888.

There are few people living now who would know anything about Ross Callen--for all the Glasses that might have remembered are gone...Uncle Ross Callen, as I understand, was a grand uncle of W.J.F. Glass (note he was W.J.F.'s grandfather on his mother's side) -- a grand old man whom cousin Will and Molly [meaning William J.F. Glass & Mary Eugenia Rebecca (Sheppard) Glass] loved so much that they brought him to Texas with them. He didn't long survive. (Note: Lady Strauss had this headstone repaired and placed flat in a concrete frame on Ross Callen's grave in McWright Cemetery near Greenville, TX, in 1981.)

Mother and I were called to his bedside to see him pass. I(t) was my first time to understand the grim reality of life and death--and I stood by and saw him buried.

And on my recent visit a nephew and his three grown daughters stood beside me, and my nephew Cliff Quattlebaum turned to with a querry--Alf, I have heard that Uncle Ross Callen was a veteran of the War with Mexico. Do you know anything about it?

I don't! But the question aroused my interest. Born 1800, he might have known Andrew Jackson and all about the Battle of New Orleans. He was a man of education and doubtless a man of valor. Or he might have waded through the Florida everglades in search of Osceola. Or he might have fought at San Jacinto, beside Houston at 36. Or he might have walked beside Jefferson Davis, a member of volunteer company of Mississippi and other southern patriots who at the battle of Buena Vista arrived in time to save Zachary Taylor's army from possible destruction--a battle in (which) Jefferson Davis was shot through the heel which left him somewhat crippled for life--Who knows? What an era in which he lived!

He lived through 1861 to 65--he was no longer young to be sure, but a man who could carry on for 28 years longer must have had stamina. I do know that he carried on cheerfully, and when he could no longer whip the Rheumatism that he (would) take his gun and dog and hunt down the predatory animals that was the bane of the hen roost--and that he was a dead shot.

It occurs to me that if Uncle Ross was one who rendered military service to our country that even at this late date he should no longer remain in a neglected grave of (nearly forgotten) dead.

Perhaps if you will carry this appeal to Charlie Glass or some members still living that they might trace his line back. The Glass's eventually moved to Emory and about that time W.J.F. Glass placed a head and foot marker, which has long since been broken down. It was driven over doubtless by a hearse that had become mired in the mud--the telltale tracs were still there.

I am sure that both Mr. Glass and Cousin Mollie loved him very much and regarded him as a sort of king among men. Further than that my vague childish knowledge does not click.

Yours very truly, Alfred M. Riley"

3,8-JOHN KERR CALLEN/ John/ William Callen Sr
(50A)JOHN KERR (or KARR?) CALLEN was born January 13, 1805. His family moved to Dallas Co, Alabama around 1827, (50A)and the church gave him a nice letter of recommendation:

To All Whom it May Concern:

Be it known, that - where as our young friend, John K Callen being about to leave this the place of his nativity with an intention of becoming an inhabitant of another State. Therefore we his friends feel ourselves in duty bound to recommend him to the good will & protection of all good people. We likewise certify that the said John K Callen now is & ever has been of an unblemished honest upright and moral Character. A young man of civil ensive and industrial habits. As such we in his behalf solicit the confidence patronage & protection of all good people. So long as he continues to support his present unspattered reputation. In testimony of which we have unto all our hands this 30th day of January 1827.

(filed Dallas Co, Alabama - dated Jun 29, 1865)

In the name of God, Amen.

I John K Callen, of the County and state aforesaid, knowing the uncertainty of life do make and publish this my Last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me of any kind heretofore made.

Item 1: I desire that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my decease, as may be reasonable be done, so as not to interfere with that portion of my Estate herein after bequested to my wife.

2nd I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Nancy S Callen, the tract of Land where I now reside, containing five hundred and forty (540) Acres, more or less, and also attached to the same, a tract of one hundred and Eighty seven (187) Acres bought of the Estate of J B King, to have and to hold during her natural life and at her decease to be divided equally between my 3 youngest children viz: Lorane, Ellen H, and Richard Cater.

3rd I desire also that my wife shall have the following property to be disposed of at her discretion Viz: All the household and kitchen furniture, carriages & buggies, wagons, farming utensils, the growing crop, all the cotton and grain, the horses, mules, cattle & hogs, also a flock of sheep containing about 35 in number, all the above belonging to my homeplace.

4th The residue of my Estate, the Lands, stock, growing crops and farming utensils, I give and bequeath to the balance of my children not named above, giving Nancy Sarena McElwain, LaFayette Alexander & Hamilton Henderson, and Thomas Monroe the advantage of five hundred dollars each over the others. John Ross, Eliza Jane, Margaret Nelson McLewain and Hugh Jackson in cause _____ of what they have heretofore received.

5th I do hereby make and ordain my wife Nancy S Callen, my sole Executrix of that portion of my Estate bequeathed to her and I request that no Bonds or returns to the Court be required on her part.

6th I do hereby appoint my sons John Ross & Hamilton H Callen my Executors of that part of my Estate not included in the portion given to my wife.

In witness whereof, I hereinto set my hand and affixed my seal this 29th day of June 1865.

CODICIL

I, John K Callen, having heretofore to wit: on this 27th day of June 1865 made and published my last will and testament in the presence of A H Mitchell, C N Briggs, and N Tate___ do now make this as a codicil to said last will. It is my will and desire that the land or any part of same bequeathed in the 2nd item of my said last will may be sold at such times and upon such terms as to credit as may be thought best by my said wife, Nancy S Callen, to sell said land whenever she may think proper whether for cash or on such credit as she may think best and to invest the proceeds of said sale shall be reinvested subject to the same trust contained in the said last will and my said wife may at her descretion give such part of this proceeds of said sale as she may think proper to my three youngest children viz: Lorance, Ellen H, Richard Cater aforesaid. And I hereby notify and confirm all the provisions of my said last will except at the same is modified by this codicil

3,9-NANCY CALLEN/ John/ William Callen Sr

(50A)NANCY CALLEN was born ca 1807 in North Carolina, she is believed to be the daughter of John and Nancy Agnes (Kerr) Callen. She married around 1837 and was the 2nd wife of LAIRD KIRKPATRICK son of Valentine and Martha (McMurray) Kirkpatrick (see 3,6). (50H)Laird was a farmer by trade.

(47)"Laird, youngest son of Valentine that we know anything about, is the sentimental favorite of your writer [Rodney Kirkpatrick]. From the things we know about him, he must have been a fun loving, obstinate, and free thinking (for his time) person. Laird was born in Cabarrus Co, NC, in 1793. He married Mary Sellers McCurdy of NC in March of 1823 in Cabarrus Co...

"Laird and Mary S McCurdy were two of the founding members of Sandy Ridge Presbyterian Church in 1833. On Feb 2, 1834, Laird and Mary asked for dismissal from Sandy Ridge so they could join Valley Creek Presbyterian Church near Selma.

"Mary died about 1837. After the death of Mary Sellers, Laird married Nancy Callens, who was born in NC in 1807. From this marriage came six children...

"On July 4, 1841, the Session of Sandy Ridge recorded that 'Laird Kirkpatrick having been suspended from church membership by the Session of Vally Creek Church & his case having been referred to this Session of said Church & he having made satisfactory acknowledgment & given evidence of repentance was restored and received as a member of this church.' The Session records of Sandy Ridge of April 23, 1842, states 'Whereas common fame charges Laird Kirkpatrick with the sin of intemperance & the members of session in a private consultation has agreed that a committee of our body should visit him endear (sic) or bring him to repentance and a confession of his sin...' The committee failed to accomplish its task and session cited him to appear. He failed to appear and was cited a second time. Mr. N.H. Craig, Clerk of Session, reported that L.W. Flinn handed in a letter from Mr. Kirkpatrick from which it appears that he took exception to an accidental omission of the Clerk to say 'ordered by Session.' The Clerk was ordered to cite him again which was done. On June 19, 1842, 'the Clerk reported that he had given Mr. Laird Kirkpatrick a citation as ordered by Session and that he had treated it with contempt.' The Session ordered him excommunicated.

"On Oct. 28, 1848, Session recorded that '...Laird Kirkpatrick was restored to the privileges of the Church on his professing repentance for his former sins.' On Oct. 16, 1859, 'Laird Kirkpatrick appeared before Session voluntarily and confessed to the crime of being intoxicated recently and professed penitence (sic) for the offense and promised to avoid that crime for the future.' On Aug. 24, 1866, the Session records show that Laird Kirkpatrick and Loyd A Pickens were cited for '...being engaged in fight with each other and using profane language...' On July 13, 1866, these two men submitted a written statement to Session asking forgiveness. Several other instances are to be found in the Session records of more of Laird's antics.

"On Dec. 16, 1872, Laird was ordered by Dallas Co. (AL) Court to appear and give additional bond as a Justice of the Peace. The dates of death and place of burial are not know for Laird and Nancy.

will of WILLIAM CALLEN

(filed Dallas County Alabama - April 19, 1861)

In the name of God, Amen.

I, William Callen, of the county of Dallas and State of Alabama, being of sound and disposing mind, do hereby make this as my last will and testament.

First, I desire that my body be decently interred and after my death that my funeral expenses be first paid and out of the first monies that shall come into the hands of my executor herein after named. I further desire that the property which I shall die possessed of shall be disposed of as follows, viz:

that Salley Callen, my beloved wife shall remain in quiet and peaceable possession of the house that I now live in and so much of the land attached thereto as she may need for the use of the hands during her natural life, and I also give for her use and benefit during her life all the negroes which I may die possessed of, unless it should be necessary to rid some for payment of my just debts, except those herein after designated, also one waggon, four mules, all the hogs and cows corn and fodder on the plantation at my decease.

I further give and bequeath to my son James Cicero Callen, at and after the death of his mother, that part of my plantation known as my father's place, but now particularly designated as the northeast quarter ... also one half of all tools in my work shop and one half of all my books in Library.

And I further give and bequeath to my son, George Marion Callen at and after the death of his mother that part of my plantation known as my home place that now particularly designed as the southwest quarter... Also one half of the tools in my work shop and one half the books in my library.

It is my further will and desire that either of the forenamed sons, James Cicero or George Marion should die without issue then in that case of the survivor shall inherit all the land herein bequeathed and that the son inheriting the said land shall in five years after the death of his brother pay to the children living of William Callen, his brother, the sum of $100 and under the same contingency, pay to the children of Thomas A Callen, his brother the sum of $100.

And it is my further will and desire that if my servants, Nancy and Lindey shall have had 10 children each, which shall have lived to the age of 1 month, that they shall remain under the contract and guardianship of my sons James and Marion or either of them as free persons, and that they have used of the house and lot that Sarah Stewart now lives in and old negro patch in the swamp their lifetime, but if the above contingency does not occur, then this bequest is void. Now if the said Nancy and Lindey should have the above number of children as stipulated and placed to themselves as above directed, I further give to them $100 each to be paid them by my executor, herein named.

It is my further will and desire that Wiley, the child of Rachel be free and under the control and guardianship of my executor herein after named, who is directed to pay to him upon his arriving at the age of 15 years, the sum of $50 out of any monies in his hands as herein after provided for.

I further give and bequeath to my son, James C, the boy Henry, son of Lindey to him and his heirs. I give and bequeath to my son George M the boy John, son of Lindey to him and his heirs.

Now it is my will and desire that at and after my death of my wife, Sally, all my property not specially divided be sold on a credit of 12 months to the highest bidder by my executor herein after named, and the proceeds thereof equally divided amongst all my children or their legal representatives, deducting from Thomas A $860 which he has already received; from Polly Culverhouse $755 which she has received; from Elizabeth Shaw $147 which she has received; from William Callen $32 which he has rec'd; from Sarah Ann Stewart $83 which she has received; from Nancy Lucinda $128 which she has rec'd and it is further stipulated & expressly intended that my bequest made to each and all of my daughters, is to them, their heirs, the heirs of their bodies. It is also my will and desire that so much and all my land not needed and used by my wife during her lifetime, the profits, rents, use and _____ shall go to my sons James, and Marion individually.

And I do hereby nominate and appoint James C Callen to be executor of this my last will and testament, and I do hereby revoke and make void all former and other wills or will by me at any time or times heretofore made and hereby declare these presents to be and contain my last will and testament.

In witness hereof I, the said testator have to this my last will & testament written on 4 pages of one sheet of paper at my ahnd & seal this July 30, 1859.

"Lady" Margaret Glass Strauss of Conroe Texas sent the following copy of Robert's marriage proposal to Margaret, and Margaret's reply. Lady says, "I personally think Margaret had already made up her mind before she received Robert's letter."

"Dear Miss:"

"Without leave I am about to take the liberty to address you a few lines which you will please excuse if not consistent with your mind. I have something to make known to you that is very nearly connected with my happiness.

"Coming to the point at once, I will say in the presence of Him who is capable of judging all hearts that I love you with all the candor and fervency that one human being is capable of loving another. It is with and for you that I would gladly spend the time that God has appointed for me to live.

"Margaret, I would to God that you well knew the honest intentions of my heart, my object and only aim Margaret is your happiness. You are doubtless happy as you now live, but that does not argue that you cannot live happy only there. Margaret, all my future hopes is placed on thee and thee alone. Tell me Margaret, is all my hopes, the fond hopes that I would so fondly cherish, are they all in vain?

"Margaret, can you treat one that loves and adores you thus with coldness and indifference? God forbid. Margaret, shouldst thou turn a deaf ear to all my entreaties yet would I love you as long as this heart continues to palpitate, accepted or rejected, I certainly will rejoice to know that thou art happy. One kind word from thee would create within my heart a heaven of joy and happiness.

"Margaret, remember the anxiety that will attend every hour until the sunshine of brighter and happier days or the clouds of misery is thrown around my existence. May some angel carry home and implant in your heart the truths contained in this letter is the prayer of your very humble servant but despairing lover. Answer this if consistent with your mind as soon as convenient.

/s/ Robert William Alexander Glass
August 26, 1847"

"September 1, 1847
Robert Glass:

"I received a letter from you; the tidings contained in your letter were truly pleasant. You have written as though I have gained your affection. You wished that I knew the honest intention of your heart. I wish I did. You think I live very happy where I live, very true I do enjoy myself very well. You wish to know if I would turn a deaf ear to all your intreaties, I say, nay, your love for me is not rejected.

"I think it best for me to bring my letter to a close. I would not have written to you so soon if you had not requested me to write as soon as it was convenient, so I have.

Your Friend
/s/ Margaret F Callen"

I, James C Callen, of the county of Dallas and the state of Alabama, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and being about to engage in the war between the Confederate States of America and the United States and being unprepared with uncertainty of life, do make and constitute this my last will & testament.

Item 1: I give and bequeath to my sister Lucinda Smith, who now lives in Arkansas for and during the term of her natural life, my negroe girl named Jane, now about 11 years old and at the death of my said sister, I give and bequeath said negroe girl to the issue of the body of my said sister.

Item 2: I give and bequeath to my mother, Sarah O Callen for and during the term of her natural life my negroe girl named Lavinia, about 9 years old. And at the death of my said mother, I give and bequeath to my niece Mary Ann Culverhouse, for and during the term of her natural life the said negroe girl named Lavinia to the issue of the body of the said Mary Ann Culverhouse.

Item 3: All the rest and residue of my property after the payment of my just debts, I give and bequeath to my brothers and sisters except that my sister, Lucinda Smith, and my neice, Mary Ann Culverhouse, in consideration of the specific legacies bequeath to them, are excluded from any share or distribution in the said rest and residue of my estate.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and office, my said seal, this 29th day of April AD 1861.

3,53-WILLIAM D CALLEN/ George A/ William Jr/ William Callen Sr
(45-51B)WILLIAM DWIGHT CALLEN was born in Monroe Co, Tenn on December 11, 1836. He was the son of George A and Matilda (Davis) Callen, (59)"both natives of North Carolina". They had "For many years made [their] home near the old Military Road some four miles west of Dardanelle [Arkansas]".

"Before arriving in Arkansas this family had went to Alabama, thence to Mississippi and in 1850 made their permanent home in the old Mt. Zion community.

(45)He "served in the Confederate Army, and was a successful farmer of Yell Co, Ark." (See Goodspeed, West Ark 1891 pg 133).

(52)"William Callan enlisted in Hallowells Company D, 15th Infantry, in 1861 and went with this unit into Missouri where he fought the battles of Oak Hill and later Elk Horn, or Pea Ridge, Farmington, Mississippi, Gibson, Champion Hill and Big Black. He was dispatched to Corinth, Tupelo and Iuka, and took part in the second battle of Corinth, also fighting at Jackson and Vicksburg and on 4 July 1863, he surrendered with the loyal sons of the south when the fort of Vicksburg was forced to surrender because of starvation.

"Upon being paroled and returning to Arkansas he was captured by Capt. Bennett and was practically forced into the Union command, but was not armed when he was captured by the Confederates again and sent to Red River, to join a company of cavalry, with which he served until the surrender.

"Returning home after the war he purchased a farm on Hays Creek west of Dardanelle, and resided there the remainder of his life. In 1867, he married Miss NANCY [JANE] HUFF, daughter of William L and Frances Huff, formerly of Tennessee but who came to this county in 1848, where their daughter was born in 30 March 1848...

(52)The Callans are parents of 11 children all of which lived until 1890, fact is that the Callans family can boast of a long lived race." (51A)William D died April 12, 1908, Nancy died June 2, 1934; they are both buried in the Mt Zion Cemetery in Dardanelle, Arkansas.

3,57-SOCRATES P CALLEN/ Hannibal D/ Thomas/ William Callen Sr?

(60I)SOCRATES POLASKY "BIG CRAT" CALLEN was born January 8, 1854 in Carroll Co, Ark. (58)He "was called "Uncle Crat" by many people. He was the son of a Confederate States Civil War veteran. When he was a young boy he moved with his parents, Hanibal Dekalb Callen and Elizabeth Leathers Callen and other members of the family to West Station, Texas, near Waco."

(60I)On December 23, 1877 in West Station Texas Crat married MOLLY WALTER BENNETT who was born in West, Texas in 1860. (58)"Big Crat, Mollie and family moved in a covered wagon from West Station, Texas to Ardmore, Carter County, Indian Territory in March of 1895 and coming on to Wiley, I.T. the same year. They settled about 3 miles Northeast of Wiley and "Crat" named the place Bold Springs after Bold Springs at his old home place in McLennan County, Texas.

"BIG CRAT" CALLEN

"Shortly after arriving near Wiley, "Crat" wanted more grazing land and he employed an interpreter to help him lease 500 acres of grazing land from the Indian people. Mollie was concerned about a garden for fresh vegetables, but had no seed and didn't know if she could get any in time for the garden. She had been hearing a rooster crowing early every morning and supposed there must be neighbors not too far away. She put on her riding skirt she brought with her from Texas early one morning and saddled up a mule and rode in the direction she heard the rooster. She found the neighbors, they were Indian people, and the Indian woman gave her enough seed to plant her first garden in Indian Territory.

"After Indian Territory became the state of Oklahoma in 1907, "Crat" was elected (at the first election) as constable of Milburn. Later he was appointed a field man and later jailer under the second sheriff of Johnston County and in 1910, "Crat" and Mollie and family moved to Tishomingo.

"In 1914, "Crat" was elected sheriff of Johnston County and served in that capacity for a term and then as jailer for the next five years. He was a farmer and rancher in the Milburn area for the next several years. In 1931 and 1932 he operated a grocery business in Wiley. The rest of his life was spent in semi-retirement. He died February 28, 1945 at Fillmore at the age of 91 and is buried in the Bold Springs Cemetery near Wiley. Mollie died at the age of 93 in Ada, Oklahoma on December 31, 1953 and is buried at Condon Grove Cemetery at Milburn..."

William Callen Sr

(50A)FRANCES F KIRKPATRICK was born Oct 9, 1850 in Union Parish, Louisiana. She was the daughter of Samuel A and Sarah E (Davis) Kirkpatrick. Around 1871 probably in Vernon Parish, La she married LEMUEL A TINSLEY who was born June 14, 1850 in Ouachita Parish, La, son of Josiah and Catherine (Fuller) Tinsley. Lemuel was a farmer.

(50I)Billy Parker of Simpson, La says, "On Aug 2, 1962 I interviewed Frank Jackson (1879-1964). He once owned a sawmill and stated that he cut the largest pine he had ever seen on the old Lemuel Tinsley place. This happened in the 1920's. The butt cut (14 ft) scaled 8,528 board feet (Doyle scale). On the ground the average man could not reach the top of this Loblolly Pine. Today the Forestry Assoc. crowns trees of each species and if this tree was standing it would be worlds champion Loblolly."

(50A)Lemuel died on July 15, 1901 and is buried in Collins Cemetery, Vernon Parish, La. (50I)Frances spent her latter years living with her daughters Viola and Sarah in Simpson, La. Frances died May 30, 1927 and is buried in Welcome Cemetery, Simpson, Louisiana.

William was born March 20, 1845 in Maxton, Robeson Co, North Carolina, and was the son of Malcolm and Clarkie Sophia (Drake) Purcell.

(53)Mary Eliza "was a woman of remarkable energy and ambition for her children."

(55C)"In their plantation home on the Chattahoochee [River] in Henry County, Al, their first five children were born. By 1882 [William H Purcell] had moved his family to Columbia, a river port 4 miles downstream, where he had a warehouse and drayage business. Here their sixth child was born in 1884. Their new home [see photo] was completed in 1890."

This home is listed as the "Purcell-Killingsworth House" and was placed on the National Register of Historic Places on December 16, 1982. "The house was placed on the National Register based on the political and business career of W.H. Purcell...its historical significance was tied to W.H. Purcell's long residence there... I think (youngest child) Clare Purcell's place in Methodist history was a contributing factor..."

(51B)ALLIE WILLIS CALLAN SR was born March 4, 1894. "Allie was my father, who was called either Bill or Willis by family and friends.
He was only 5'4" tall but was a man's man." On August 9, 1919 he married EUNICE EVALINE HARMON who was born October 29, 1899.

"He was a carpenter by trade and built several of the beautiful homes here in Fort Smith and remodeled several homes and businesses. He was well-known and respected for his work. He made a lot of beautiful furniture for his home.

"He loved to fish and hunt but in the last few years of his life, he had to give up his hobbies because of crippling arthritis.

"He served as a sargeant in the Arkansas National Guard from Dardanelle on the Mexican Border chasing Pancho Villa. He joined in World War I and was stationed in France and served as a sargeant there. One of his favorite stories was that one night his lieutenant told him that he and his men were to guard this train which was very important. So they stood guard all night believing the train was probably loaded with guns and ammo. The next morning the three cars were unloaded and revealed cases of Hersey chocolate bars. As he said, they were appreciated more than guns and ammo.

"He became very crippled and walked with a cane but very seldom did you ever hear him complain. He still drove his car until his death at age of 90 - almost 91." Allie died December 6, 1984 and is buried in Brearly Cemetery, Dardanelle, Arkansas; Eunice is still living in Arkansas.

(60I)On December 4, 1932 in Fillmore, Oklahoma he married LUELLA MAE DARBISON who was born in Caddo, Oklahoma on November 19, 1917. She was the daughter of Henry and Ella (Compton) Darbison. (58)"Her family lived in the Milburn area nearly all their lives, and both her parents are buried in the Condon Grove Cemetery east of Milburn.

"Clint and Luella made their home on the old Callen homeplace and purchased other lands nearby to make a farm large enough to support them. They farmed the land, primarily raising peanuts and four children...

"Clinton Woodrow Callen suffered a heart attack and died September 12, 1970 at his home on the old Callen farm at Bold Springs. He was buried in the Condon Grove Cemetery. Clint was very well liked and respected by the community, as evidenced by his funeral which was one of the largest in Milburn history. Clint's friends who attended came from all walks of life, and included Senators, Respresentatives, indian people, black people, the rich, the poor; all mourned in his passing.

"Luella Callen sold the farm to her youngest son Jackie and moved to Durant. Later she met and married Ray Tussy, on January 10, 1973. Ray had also been recently widowed. He and Luella presently live in Durant."

CHARLES CALLEN

We're unsure at this time if this line is related to the other Callen lines in this book. To date we've found no connections or contacts between any of Charles' families with the other lines. However Charles Callen's name is first found in Pennsylvania in York County in 1783.

Tradition handed down from this line says, "There were 3 brothers came from Donegal, Ireland. Their name was O'CALLEN. One went away with the Indians; nothing is known about the second brother;" Charles is the third brother. Here is his family.

4,1-CHARLES CALLEN is first heard of in a deed in York Co, Pennsylvania in 1783. (62)Charles and his wife ALICE (COWGILL) Callen received money from the will of her father Henry Cowgill and his wife Alice (Payne) Cowgill. Charles and Alice apparently went to Virginia because census records show their son Henry Callen was born in Virginia in 1786.

(64A)Charles and Alice appear to have gone to Jefferson Co or Knox Co, Tennessee from Virginia since the second son was born in Tennessee in 1794 according to the 1850 census records.

Charles died on May 20, 1825; Alice died just 7 months later on December 20, 1825, both probably buried in Jefferson Co, Tennessee.

LINE OF CHARLES CALLEN - 2ND GENERATION

4,2-HENRY CALLEN/ Charles Callen

(64A)HENRY CALLEN was born on November 30, 1786, (29)probably in Virginia, the son of Charles and Alice (Cowgill) Callen. Henry's nickname was "Diddo". On March 18, 1817 in Jefferson Co, Tennessee he married MARY ELIZABETH DOUGLAS (64C)daughter of Thomas and Kiziah Douglas. Elizabeth was born June 3, 1795. (64A)Henry brought his family by "steamboat up the Mississippi River and settled in Van Buren County, Iowa. In 1848-49 they went on to Appanoose Co. and lived in Taylor Twp."

Elizabeth died May 20, 1853, and "Diddo" died a couple weeks later on June 3 (or 7), 1853; both are buried in the Hays (Coulson) Cemetery in Appanoose Co, Iowa.

(64A-64C)MARY "POLLY" CALLEN was the daughter of Charles and Alice (Cowgill) Callen. On October 4, 1827 she married JOHN MULVANEY, he died May 20, 1853. Polly died before the 1850 census.

4,5-CASSANDRA CALLEN/ Charles Callen

(64A-64C)CASSANDRA (or CLARINDA) CALLEN was the daughter of Charles and Alice (Cowgill) Callen. She married Mr. UNDERWOOD. Cassandra was killed when she was hit by lightning, she died July 10 (or October 7) 1850.

4,6-ANNIE CALLEN/ Charles Callen

(64A-64C)ANNIE CALLEN was born March 22, 1797, the daughter of Charles and Alice (Cowgill) Callen. She married Mr. WAKEFIELD. Annie died June 30, 1887.

4,7-CHARLES CALLEN/ Charles Callen

CHARLES CALLEN served in the (30)War of 1812 as a Private from Capt Bowman's Co in the Tennessee Militia from September 23, 1813 to December 22, 1813. He first married MARGARET INGRAM. His military records show that in 1851 and 1855 he was living in Newton Co, Missouri.

On April 3, 1856 then living in Washington Co, Arkansas Charles married 2nd SETHY BRYAN. Charles died on September 8, 1870 in Lawrence Co, Mo, his widow Sethy was living in Appanoose Co. Moravia, Iowa in 1878.

4,8-EDWARD CALLEN/ Charles Callen

(64B)EDWARD CALLEN was born on May 5, 1799 (29)in Tennessee. (63)On March 11, 1824 in Knox Co, Tenn, he married "PATSY" MARTHA CATES who was born (64B)January 15, 1800. (61)"He was of Scotch-Irish ancestry and she of German... Grandfather Callen was a large and rugged man, and lived to be about seventy years old."

(64B)Edward died December 27, 1871 (64A)and is buried in New Hope Cemetery, in Appanoose Co, Iowa. Martha died May 18, 1881.

(64C)JOHN SPURLOCK CALLEN was born February 16, 1818 (29)in Tennessee. He was married on September 12, 1841 to PENOLOPY MOUPINE who was born November 24, 1819. They seem to appear twice in the 1850 census for Iowa - once in the home of his parents in Appanoose Co, second in Van Co, Bonapart Twp. Perhaps they moved during the census year, (it seems unlikely that there were two men named John Callen each with a wife named Penelope, a 6 year old daughter named Elizabeth, and a 1 year old son).

4,29-HARVEY J CALLEN/ Pryor L/ Edward/ Charles Callen
(61)"HARVEY J CALLEN, one of the prominent grain dealers of Southeastern Nebraska, has been in business in South Auburn, Nemaha county, for a number of years, and is one of the well known citizens of that place. Besides being concerned in many of the business interests of the town, he has taken a due part in social, political and religious activities, and is in all things a public-spirited citizen who may be depended upon for influence and aid in promoting the progress and development of his town and community...

"Harvey J Callen was born in Appanoose County, Iowa, March 19, 1856. Being the oldest of the family he had to work from an early age, although he obtained good schooling in the public schools. He left home, farm, and Iowa in 1879 and came to Hamilton Co, Nebraska, where for two years he was engaged in the farm implement business at Aurora. He later came to South Auburn, and the firm of H.J. Callen and Company has two elevators in this city and is doing an extensive business in handling grain... Mr. Callen is also a stockholder in the new fine brick hotel, called Avenue Hotel, in Auburn, and besides his own comfortable home on Maxwell Street owns considerable other city property.

"On Christmas day of 1880 Mr. Callen married Miss ELLEN HIATT, who was one of his schoolmates in Iowa, and is a daughter of Oren A Hiatt ... Mr. Callen affiliates with the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Modern Woodmen, and is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which he has been trustee for nine years. He votes the Republican ticket, but has never aspired to office. He is a good citizen, and he and his family are held in the highest esteem wherever known."
